Maria Primachenko Marija Avksentijivna Pryimachenko, E. I. Shestakova, 1979 Art in Ukraine Between Identity Construction and Anti-Colonial Resistance Svitlana Biedarieva, 2024-11-29 This edited volume traces the development of art practices in Ukraine from the 2004 Orange Revolution through the 2013-2014 Revolution of Dignity to the ongoing Russian war of aggression. Contributors explore how transformations of identity, the emergence of participatory democracy, relevant changes to cultural institutions, and the realization of the necessity of decolonial release have influenced the focus and themes of contemporary art practices in Ukraine. The chapters analyze such important topics as the postcolonial retrieval of the past, the deconstruction of post-Soviet visualities, representations of violence and atrocities in the ongoing Russian war against Ukraine, and the notion of art as a mechanism of civic resistance and identity building. The book will be of interest to scholars of art history, Eastern European studies, cultural studies, decolonial studies, and postcolonial studies.

The Efficacy of Intimacy and Belief in Worldmaking Practices Urmila Mohan, 2023-11-17 This book explores efficacious intimacy as an embodied concept of worldmaking and a framework for studying belief practices in religious and political domains. The study of how beliefs make and manifest power through their sociality and materiality can reveal who or what is considered effective in a particular socio-cultural context. The chapters feature case studies drawn from diverse religious and political contexts in Asia, Africa, and the Americas, and explore practices ranging from ingesting sacred water to resisting injustice. In doing so, the authors analyze emotions and affects and how they influence dynamics of proximity and distance. Taking an innovative approach to the topic of intimacy, the book offers a fascinating examination of how life worlds are constructed by material practices. It will be of interest to scholars of anthropology, religion, and material culture.

The Art of Ukraine Alisa Lozhkina, 2024-06-21 Ukraine is at a historic crossroads with the nation's complex cultural identity at stake. Curator Alisa Lozhkina provides an authoritative overview of the country's art, artists, and movements from the dawn of Modernism to the Soviet period to post-Soviet times and Russia's invasion of Ukraine in 2022. She discusses Ukrainian art and artists within historical and political contexts, as well as showing how they have contributed to and interacted with Ukrainian culture and identity as the nation transformed from provincial status on the periphery of the Russian Empire to a constituent republic of the Soviet Union through to independence and the challenges of its most recent history. Arranged broadly chronologically and fully illustrated throughout, The Art of Ukraine offers a powerful opportunity to explore the rich and complex Ukrainian artistic tradition.

Images and Objects of Russia's War against Ukraine Natasha Klimenko, Miglė Bareikytė, 2025-08-12 Russia's full-scale invasion of Ukraine in February 2022 has destroyed lives, communities, and cities. From the start, images of this war spread across various media platforms. Paintings, photographs, drone footage, TikToks, and Instagram posts shaped how the war is experienced, represented, and archived. In this multidisciplinary volume, artists, scholars, and writers explore how art, media infrastructures, and material culture respond to and contest the Russo-Ukrainian War.
