Marital Love:

Christian Marriage David Michael Thomas, 1992 This book represents a theology of marriage. It is not intended as a manual for solving marital problems or as a self help guide on how to improve one's marriage. Rather its basic goal is to bring forward into our time with all its uniqueness and peculiarities major insights of the Christian faith as they relate to married life. Through the love of wife and husband woman and man through loving words pronounced in public in formal ceremony and unfolded in the time that ensues through the couple's collaboration with God's creative power in bringing new life into the world through the spirituality lived in transforming creation the sacrament of marriage brings the Spirit of God into the world. Each couple has the power to block this process but what is more important to affirm is their capacity to advance it. And it happens From Chapter 1 Marital Love and Hate Israel W. Charny, 1972 Committed Worship Donald L.

Gelpi, 1993 Volume II develops a sacramental theology that addresses the needs of all adult Christians. The chapters on Marriage show how conversion both humanizes and Christianizes human sexuality providing the context for a foundational rethinking of the meaning of the context for a foundational rethinking of the meaning of Christian Marriage. The discussion of Orders examines the responsibilities of ordained leaders and throws light on the rise of clericalism and on the meaning of priestly identity and ministry in addition to clarifying the relationship between the priesthood of the laity and that of the ordained. A discussion of Christian nurture explains the practical and theoretical meaning of infant Baptism. This volume also examines the three sacraments that most foster ongoing conversion Reconciliation Anointing and Eucharist. After situating each of these rituals in its Biblical and historical setting the author shows how each contributes to ongoing Christian conversion. Marriage and the Catholic Church Michael G. Lawler, 2002 In this collection of theological essays Michael Lawler confronts difficult questions in the Catholic theology of marriage. Lawler addresses questions about marriage and sacrament faith and sacrament divorce and remarriage cohabitation an Catholic models of marriage honestly historically accurately and pastorally. He identifies and explores debated issues embraces a position on them and sustains his position with reasoned Catholic insight and pastoral sensitivity. With an excellent command of the sources he offers a fresh look at the Catholic theology of marriage for a new millennium. Sex in Civilization Victor Francis Calverton, Samuel Daniel

Schmalhausen, 1929 Several pages on homosexuality see index Ethical Principles of Marriage and Divorce Louis Freeland Post, 1906 How to Improve Your Marriage Without Talking About It Patricia Love, Ed.D., Steven Stosny, PH.D, 2008-04-29 Men are right The relationship talk does not help Dr Patricia Love's and Dr Steven Stosny's How to Improve Your Marriage Without Talking About It reveals the stunning truth about marital happiness. Love is not about better communication It's about connection You'll never get a closer relationship with your man by talking to him like you talk to one of your girlfriends. Male emotions are like women's sexuality you can't be too direct too quickly. There are four ways to connect with a man touch activity sex routines Men want closer marriages just as much as women do but not if they have to act like a woman Talking makes women move closer it makes men move away The secret of the silent male is this his wife supplies the meaning in his life The stunning truth about love is that talking doesn't help Drs Patricia Love and Steven Stosny have studied this all too familiar dynamic between men and women and have reached a truly shocking conclusion Even with the best of intentions talking about your relationship doesn't bring you together and it will eventually drive you apart The reason for this is that underneath most couples fights there is a biological difference at work A woman's vulnerability to fear and anxiety makes her draw closer while a man's subtle sensitivity to shame makes him pull away in response This is why so many married couples fall into the archetypal roles of nagging wife stonewalling husband and why improving a marriage can't happen through words How to Improve Your Marriage Without Talking About It teaches couples how to get closer in ways that don't require trying to turn a man into a woman Rich in stories of couples who have turned their marriages around and full of practical advice about the behaviors that make and break marriages this essential guide will help couples find love beyond words

Marriage Dietrich Von Hildebrand,1984 Before we examine the nature the meaning and the beauty of Christian marriage which St Paul calls a great mystery in Christ and the Holy Church we shall examine the essence and meaning of marriage in the realm of nature and its specific character in reference to all other fellowships and communities Only in this way can we understand what was so gloriously exalted by Jesus Christ and thus dispel the misinterpretations of the nature of marriage so frequently encountered Why does Holy Scripture choose this particular relationship as an image It is chosen because marriage is the closest and most intimate of all earthly unions in which more than in any other one person gives himself to another without reserve where the other in his complete personality is the object of love and where mutual love is in a specific way the theme that is to say the core of the relationship
