Building a Market Richard Harris, 2012-08-27 Each year North Americans spend as much money fixing up their homes as they do buying new ones. This obsession with improving our dwellings has given rise to a multibillion dollar industry that includes countless books, consumer magazines, a cable television network and thousands of home improvement stores. Building a Market charts the rise of the home improvement industry in the United States and Canada from the end of World War I into the late 1950s.
