Mastering the Message Lauren Kessler, Duncan McDonald, 1989 Mastering the Message Lauren Kessler, Duncan McDonald, 1999 Political Correctness in Context: The PC Controversy in America Annette Gomis van Heteren, 1997-01-01 In this book the recent phenomenon of political correctness or PC is studied in the American context in which it arose with a brief section devoted to its British press coverage The author examines the question from the point of view of an outsider and one who moreover lives in continental Europe and consequently her perspective aims to be as far reaching as possible in contrast to most of the studies of PC so far The scope of the book discusses the background of PC and manifestations of the different aspects that make up the so called PC debate only one of which is the canon debate Annette Gomis has an Honours degree in Modern Languages from Trinity College Dublin and a degree in Modern Languages from the University of Valencia She also has an MSc in Teaching English from the University of Aston and a Ph D in English from the University of Granada She is currently a member of the Department of French English and German at the University of Almer a Copywriting that Sells High Tech Janice M. King, 2006 Mass Media James B. Martin, 2002 Mass media has become an integral part of the human experience News travels around the world in a split second affecting people in other countries in untold ways Although being on top of the news may be good at least for news junkies mass media also transmits values or the lack thereof condenses complex events and thoughts to simplified sound bites and often ignores the essence of an event or story The selective bibliography gathers the books and magazine literature over the previous ten years while providing access through author title and subject indexes History of the Mass Media in the United States Margaret A. Blanchard, 2013-12-19 The influence of the mass media on American history has been overwhelming History of the Mass Media in the United States examines the ways in which the media both affects and is affected by U S society From 1690 when the first American newspaper was founded to 1995 this encyclopedia covers more than 300 years of mass media history History of Mass Media in the United States contains more than 475 alphabetically arranged entries covering subjects ranging from key areas of newspaper history to broader topics such as media coverage of wars major conflicts over press freedom court cases and legislation and the concerns and representation of ethnic and special interest groups The editor and the 200 scholarly contributors to this work have taken particular care to examine the technological legal legislative economic and political developments that have affected the American media Public Relations Writing and Media Techniques Dennis L. Wilcox, Lawrence W. Nolte, 1990 Mediamerica Edward Jay Whetmore, 1991 Mediamerica, Mediaworld Edward Jay Whetmore, 1993 Objectivity in Journalism Steven Maras, 2013-04-03 Objectivity in journalism is a key topic for debate in media communication and journalism studies and has been the subject of intensive historical and sociological research In the first study of its kind Steven Maras surveys the different viewpoints and perspectives on objectivity Going beyond a denunciation or defence of journalistic objectivity Maras critically examines the different scholarly and professional arguments made in the area Structured around key questions the book considers the origins and history of objectivity its philosophical influences the main objections and defences and questions of values politics and ethics This book examines debates around objectivity as a transnational norm focusing on the emergence of objectivity in the US while broadening out discussion to include developments around objectivity in the UK Australia Asia and other regions Communications Law John D. Zelezny,1993 Personal injury lawsuits against the media invasion of privacy copyright and trademark law corporate and government speech music licensing unfair competition These and other topics are covered fully in John Zelezny s survival kit for anyone who works in media Throughout Zelezny passes on to the reader a deep appreciation for the liberties provided by a tradition of free speech but zeros in on the restraints imposed by the most significant and current legal rules and principles Diagrams boxed inserts photographs sample documents and other graphics are used throughout this dynamic presentation Hypothetical puzzles begin each chapter to engage readers and serve as a springboard into the material Case excerpts in most chapters show readers the legal process at work Many practical tips references to communications contracts and descriptions of common professional practices show how the law actually affects daily life in the media industries Speech Communication Directory Speech Communication Association,1989 Brief biographical information on members of the Speech Communication Association Central States Speech Association Eastern Communication Association Southern Speech Communication Association and Western Speech Communication Association Also includes information about the organization institutions offering graduate degrees in speech communication lists of books equipment and supplies in speech and advertisements Creative Strategy in Advertising A. Jerome Jewler,1989 This text moves step by step through the creative process of advertising covering most of today s important advertising media print radio television and direct mail Radio Station Operations Lewis B.
