Volume II Thomas L. Masson,2019-09-15 Excerpt Does any one remember the Caravan She was what would now be considered a slow boat then 1827 she was regularly advertised as the fast running etc Her regular trips from New Orleans to Natchez were usually made in from six to eight days a trip made by her in five days was considered remarkable A voyage from New Orleans to Vicksburg and back including stoppages generally entitled the officers and crew to a month s wages Whether the Caravan ever achieved the feat of a voyage to the Falls Louisville I have never learned if she did she must have had a time of it It was my fate to take passage in this boat The Captain was a good natured easy going man careful of the comfort of his passengers and exceedingly fond of the game of brag We had been out a little more than five days and we were in hopes of seeing the bluffs of Natchez on the next day Our wood was getting low and night coming on The pilot on duty above the other pilot held three aces at the time and was just calling out the Captain who went it strong on three kings sent down word that the mate had reported the stock of wood reduced to half a cord The worthy Captain excused himself to the pilot whose watch was below and the two passengers who made up the party and hurried to the deck where he soon discovered by the landmarks that we were about half a mile from a woodyard which he said was situated right round yonder point But muttered the Captain I don t much like to take wood of the yellow faced old scoundrel who owns it he always charges a quarter of a dollar more than any one else however there s no other chance The boat was pushed to her utmost and in a little less than an hour when our fuel was about giving out we made the point and our cables were out and fastened to trees alongside of a good sized woodpile Hallo Colonel How d ye sell your wood this time A yellow faced old gentleman with a two weeks beard strings over his shoulders holding up to his armpits a pair of copperas colored linsey woolsey pants the legs of which reached a very little below the knee shoes without stockings a faded broad brimmed hat which had once been black and a pipe in his mouth casting a glance at the empty guards of our boat and uttering a grunt as he rose from fastening our spring line answered Why Capting we must charge you three and a quarter this time Masterpieces of American Wit and Humor Thomas L. Masterpieces of American Wit and Humor Thomas Lansing Masson,Thomas L. Masson,1921 In the meantime strange things had been going on When he caught hold of the first bee Mr Middlerib for reasons drew it out in such haste that for a time he forgot all about the bottle and its remedial contents and left it lying uncorked in the bed between himself and his innocent wife In the darkness there had been a quiet but general emigration from that bottle The bees their wings clogged with the water Mr Middlerib had poured upon them to cool and tranquillize them were crawling aimlessly over the sheet While Mr Middlerib was feeling around for it his ears were suddenly thrilled and his heart frozen by a wild piercing scream from his wife Masterpieces of American Wit and Humor, Vol. 4 (Classic Reprint) Thomas L.
