Jazz Masters of the Thirties Rex Stewart, 1972 Jazz Masters of the Thirties the final volume in the Macmillan Jazz Masters Series is unique in the literature of jazz it is the only jazz history written by a musician that is not directly autobiographical Its author Rex Stewart played trumpet with Fletcher Henderson and Duke Ellington as well as in his own band His book is warm and humorous filled with anecdotes and personal recollections of the great and near great of the late 20s and 30s both on and off the bandstand but his book is more than a collection of colorful pen portraits It is the distillation of a vivid memory and amazing powers of observation and perception His insights into what made many of his fellow players tick are original his judgments are right on the beat He never minimizes their foibles but he writes of them with a sincere affection and a generous appreciation of their talents Seventeen of the twenty chapters spotlight the careers of top jazz musicians together with stories of those of lesser stature who shared the bandstand with the giants Stewart describes himself as having served during his years with Duke Ellington as his barber chef valet third trumpet in his orchestra and poker opponent and certainly his three pieces on the Duke are marvels of revelation and understanding of this enigmatic genius The others Fletcher Henderson who bridged the earlier jazz and the music that later evolved Louis Armstrong vacillating between moods of gaiety and glumness a potent influence on other musicians and an effective ambassador for American jazz abroad Coleman Hawkins father of the tenor sax Red Norvo one of the white men respected by Negro musicians who single handedly made the xylophone sound a part of the lexicon of swing and the rest of Stewart s headliners of the era There s an amusing chapter on the rewards and exasperations of the recording business in its early years and fascinating accounts of jam sessions where top performers vied with each other in their private hangouts In one of these he tells how Jelly Roll Morton outplayed piano virtuoso Willie The Lion Smith only to have James P Johnson acknowledged boss of Harlem stride piano players wipe up the floor with him The book concludes with a biographical essay on Count Basie by Hsio Wen Shih and a warm appreciation of Rex Stewart by Francis Thorne
