

A photograph of a golf course featuring a large, yellow bulldog statue in the foreground. The bulldog is standing on a green, with its mouth open showing white teeth and a black tongue. It has a green collar with a tag. The word "MASTERS" is written in green, stylized letters above the bulldog's head. In the background, there is a golf green with a white flag and a red flag. The sky is blue with some clouds, and there are trees on both sides of the path.

The Story of the Masters David Barrett, 2022-03 The Story of the Masters is the first comprehensive year by year history of the world's most famous golf tournament Veteran golf journalist David Barrett draws upon contemporaneous reporting and other source material to offer dramatic accounts of each year the tournament has been played starting in 1934 The story of the tournament progresses from the early years when it was founded by golf great Bobby Jones and quickly established itself as an elite event to the post World War II era when Sam Snead and Ben Hogan dominated The thrilling exploits of dashing hero Arnold Palmer brought the tournament into the television age and the sustained excellence of Jack Nicklaus helped to further the prestige of the tournament Nearly two full decades of European dominance of the Masters heralded the international age of golf Then Tiger Woods came along and used the Augusta stage for his coming out party in 1997 and then for his epic comeback in 2019 In Barrett's telling each year has its own story to tell as the Augusta National course provides the perfect setting for tournament excitement noted for suspenseful back and forth action between multiple contenders the norm at the Masters The nature of the course's layout creates opportunities for stirring charges and heroic shots to determine the champion while filled with enough danger to provoke monumental collapses that also become part of Masters lore Through the decades the game's greatest players have shined their brightest at the Masters Many golfing careers have been shaped and defined by this tournament and Barrett shares unknown and forgotten stories of not only the sport's stars but also the many others who challenged them over the years at Augusta

Making the Masters David Barrett, 2012-03-21 Contested the second weekend in April each year since 1934 the Masters is the world's most prestigious golf tournament and most watched tournament on television Tickets are in such demand that even the waiting list is closed and players value the title above all others In Making the Masters award winning golf writer David Barrett focuses his attention on how the Masters was conceived how it got off the ground in 1934 and how it fully established itself in 1935 The key figure in the tournament's creation and success was Bobby Jones who was a living legend after winning the Grand Slam in 1930 and immediately retiring at the age of twenty eight He went on to found Augusta National and sought a high profile tournament for his new course But nearly as important was Clifford Roberts a banker friend of Jones who not only embraced Jones's vision but became his right hand man in working to bring that vision to reality Barrett explores how Jones and Roberts built the Masters from scratch creating a golf institution embellished by the often surprising details of what that entailed as they were trying to establish a golf club and golf tournament in tough economic times It also vividly chronicles the events of the 1934 and 1935 Masters with Gene Sarazen's spectacular victory in 1935 providing the climax Set against the backdrop of golf and America in the 1930s the book provides an informative and entertaining read for fans of the Masters and students of golf history Augusta Steve Eubanks, 1997-04 The author explores the history of the Augusta National Golf Club and its connection with the rich and famous Behind the wondrous scenes and memorable tournament play however resides a secretive and clannish club with a gentlemen only membership of three hundred Jacket The Masters Ron Green Jr., 2008-04-01 An award winning sportswriter presents 101 reasons to love the Masters tournament at Augusta National from the down home the peach cobbler served at Augusta National's clubhouse to the sublime Ben Hogan and Byron Nelson's breathtaking playoff for the 1942 championship to the stars of today Unprecedented Tiger Woods, Lorne Rubenstein, 2017-03-23 WINNER OF THE 2019 2005 2002 2001 and 1997 MASTERS In UNPRECEDENTED ME AND THE MASTERS Tiger Woods shares in his own words the story of the original Masters tournament that took him to greatness all of which has paved the way for one of the most phenomenal comebacks in sporting history To come back and win the Masters after all the highs and lows is a testament to excellence grit and determination BARACK OBAMA In 1997 Tiger Woods was already among the most watched and closely examined athletes in history But it wasn't until the Masters Tournament that Tiger Woods's career would definitively change forever Tiger Woods then only 21 won the Masters by a historic 12 shots which remains the widest margin of victory in the tournament's history making it arguably among the most seminal events in golf He was the first African American Asian player to win the Masters and this at the Augusta National Golf Club perhaps the most exclusive club in the world and one that had in 1990 admitted its first black member More than twenty years after his first historic win Tiger Woods explores his life with the game with the Masters tournament itself about how golf has changed over the past twenty years and what it was like winning such an event Woods will also open up about his relationship with father Earl Woods dispelling previous misconceptions and will candidly reveal many never before heard stories Written by one of the game's all time greats this book will provide keen insight on the Masters then and now as well as on the sport itself Greatness like no other SERENA WILLIAMS The History of the Masters James Bren, Step onto the green and dive deep into the rich unforgettable story of golf's most legendary tournament The Masters at Augusta National In this in depth and easy to read book author James Bren takes readers on a journey through decades of tradition records and unforgettable moments that have made The Masters Tournament one of the greatest events in PGA golf history Perfect for golf fans sports history lovers and anyone interested in the legendary players timeless traditions and iconic victories that define professional golf this book brings The Masters to life in a way that's both detailed and easy to follow Discover the origins of The Masters and how Augusta National became one of the world's most famous golf courses Learn about legendary champions like Jack Nicklaus Tiger Woods Arnold Palmer and Gary Player Explore unforgettable moments record setting performances and historic comebacks Read about amazing firsts like the youngest players oldest winners and
