Japanese Woodblock Prints Andreas Marks, 2012-03-13 Japanese woodblock prints or ukiyo e are the most recognizable Japanese art form. Their massive popularity has spread from Japan to be embraced by a worldwide audience. Covering the period from the beginning of the Japanese woodblock print in the 1680s until the year 1900, Japanese Woodblock Prints provides a detailed survey of all the famous ukiyo e artists along with over 500 full color prints. Unlike previous examinations of this art form, Japanese Woodblock Prints includes detailed histories of the publishers of woodblock prints who were often the driving force determining which prints and therefore which artists would make it into mass circulation for a chance at critical and popular success. Invaluable as a guide for ukiyo e enthusiasts looking for detailed information about their favorite Japanese woodblock print artists and prints, it is also an ideal introduction for newcomers to the world of the woodblock print. This lavishly illustrated book will be a valued addition to the libraries of scholars as well as the general art enthusiast.

Japanese Masterworks from the Price Collection, 2007 Joe Price purchased his first Japanese painting in the 1950s under the influence of Frank Lloyd Wright. Over the next five decades he and his wife Etsuko would collect more than 200 masterpieces from the Edo period 1615-1868, a time when Japan had isolated itself from the rest of the world. Curiously during that period of national seclusion, independent and diversely creative artists flourished as never before. Today the Etsuko and Joe Price Collection is placed among the finest in the world. The detailed patterns evident in many of the works reflect the high regard artists of the period held for textile designers. The expressiveness in the eyes of the various animals, demons, deities, and people depicted suggest that they all inhabited the same world rather than different spiritual levels. The prominent religious theory of the time, the animal world becomes more animated, landscapes have their own light, spirits are alive, past becomes present, evoking a mood that suggests familiarity with all worlds above and below. At the collection's core are screens, hanging scrolls, fans, and some of the finest examples of the distinctive hauntingly preternatural renderings of animal life by Ito Jakuchu 1716-1800, one of the most innovative and imaginative of Kyoto's eighteenth-century painters. Jakuchu's prominence in recent decades has been greatly aided by the Price's intensive interest in his work.
