Material Strategies Dress And Gender In Historical Perspective:

Special Issue: Material Strategies Barbara Burman, 2002      Gender, Imperialism and Global Exchanges Stephan F. Miescher, Michele Mitchell, Naoko Shibusawa, 2015-05-06 Gender Imperialism and Global Exchanges presents a collection of original readings that address gendered dimensions of empire from a wide range of geographical and temporal settings. Draws on original research on gender and empire in relation to labour, commodities, fashion, politics, mobility and visibility. Includes coverage of gender issues from countries in Africa, the Americas, Europe and Asia between the eighteenth to twentieth centuries. Highlights a range of transnational and transregional connections across the globe. Features innovative gender analyses of the circulation of people, ideas and cultural practices.      Black France Dominic Thomas, 2007 Without a doubt, one of the most important studies so far completed on literature in French, grounded in the experiences of migrants of sub-Saharan African origin. Alec Hargreaves, Florida State University. France has always hosted a rich and vibrant black presence within its borders. But recent violent events have raised questions about France's treatment of ethnic minorities. Challenging the identity politics that have set immigrants against the mainstream, Black France explores how black expressive culture has been reformulated as global culture in the multicultural and multinational spaces of France. Thomas brings forward questions such as: Why is France a privileged site of civilization? Who is French? Who is an immigrant? Who controls the networks of production? Black France poses an urgently needed reassessment of the French colonial legacy.

The Pocket Barbara Burman, Ariane Fennetaux, 2020-04-24. A New York Times Best Art Book of 2019. A riveting book, few stones are left unturned. Roberta Smith's Top Art Books of 2019, The New York Times. This fascinating and enlightening study of the tie-on pocket combines materiality and gender to provide new insight into the social history of women's everyday lives, from duchesses and country gentry to prostitutes and washerwomen, and to explore their consumption practices, sociability, mobility, privacy and identity. A wealth of evidence reveals unexpected facets of the past, bringing women's stories into intimate focus. What particularly interests Burman and Fennetaux is the way in which women of all classes have historically used these tie-on pockets as a supplementary body part to help them negotiate their way through a world that was not built to suit them. Kathryn Hughes, The Guardian. A brilliant book. Ulinka Rublack, Times Literary Supplement.      The Material Renaissance Michelle O'Malley, Evelyn Welch, 2007. Despite the recent interests of economic and art historians in the workings of the market, we still know remarkably little about the everyday context for the exchange of objects and the meaning of demand in the lives of individuals in the Renaissance. Nor do we have much sense of the relationship between the creation and purchase of works of art and the production, buying and selling of other types of objects in Italy in the period. The Material Renaissance addresses these issues of economic and social life.      Journal of Women's History, 2003.

Material Strategies Barbara Burman, Carole Turbin, 2003-08-22. Material Strategies brings together scholars from different disciplines to explore what dress and textiles can tell us about gender history. Broad in scope, covers women, men social groupings and nations from the sixteenth to the twentieth century Rich in detail incorporates illustrations that provide visual evidence for gendered strategies of dress Combines perspectives from design and textile history business history cultural anthropology social history art history and cultural history Considers material strategies in relation to production and consumption the public and the private the body and sexuality and national identity Written in a jargon free style making it accessible to readers from a wide range of backgrounds International Guide to Literature on Masculinity Diederik F. Janssen, 2008 International in scope this guide lists references by world region selected nations selected American ethnic minorities and Christianity and Judaism Specific ethnic minorities covered include American Indians African Americans and Asian Americans Material Culture in America Helen Sheumaker, 2008 You can tell a lot about people by looking at their stuff the things they make process and value That is the idea that drives the field of material culture in which scholars explore the meaning of objects of a given society This book is the first encyclopedia to look at the study of material culture and what it reveals about life in the United States Jacket Understanding Fashion History Valerie Cumming, 2004 A much needed overview of fashion history and how to understand it with clear jargon free text for lay readers collectors as well as students of fashion history A Cultural History of the Nurse's Uniform Christina Bates, 2012 This first and only in depth analysis of the attire worn by the largest workforce in the health care system explores the role of the nurse's uniform in creating nursing identity for over a hundred years The introduction of the nurse's uniform in the late nineteenth century was part of a strategy to legitimize North America's first nursing schools At first varied and experimental in design by the early 20th century the uniform was drawing on elements of fashionable scientific military and ecclesiastical wear and had standardized into a blue or pink dress worn with stiffly starched white cap bib and apron This remarkable outfit lasted until the 1970s when educational and societal changes brought about its demise and practical scrubs became the most common nursing apparel Seen through the lens of age gender class and race this book shows how the uniform was an active participant in the changing culture of nursing work and thought Richly illustrated with images of actual garments and over 150 compelling period photographs cartoons and drawings the book explores the uniform within the contexts of hospital community nursing school and residence A Cultural History of the Nurse's Uniform will appeal to nurses historians and scholars of dress British and Irish Home Arts and Industries, 1880-1914 Janice Helland, 2007 This is the first book to study the revival of cottage crafts that accompanied the growing interest in an arts and crafts movement in Britain and Ireland It focuses upon three regional craft associations organised sponsored and promoted by British women the Donegal Industrial Fund founded 1883 by Londoner Alice Rowland Hart the Irish Industries Association founded 1886 by Ishbel Countess of Aberdeen and supported by a number of Irish and British aristocrats and Highland Home Industries revived in 1886 by the Marchioness of Stafford later Millicent Duchess of Sutherland The three examples have been selected because although like many of their counterparts the patrons endorsed a relationship between work and morality they also recognised the significance of consumption and market Their patrons understood the value of spectacle the usefulness of advertising and the efficacy of exhibition The emphasis is upon how and why they adopted these strategies to promote and sell cottage crafts for the benefit of rural workers The introduction provides an overview of home arts and industries in Britain as part of the late nineteenth century craft revival and examines the difference between the large English based Home Arts and Industries Association and other home arts organisations in England Scotland Wales and Ireland

The Men's Fashion Reader Peter McNeil, Vicki Karaminas, 2009 The Men's Fashion Reader brings together key writings in the history culture and identity of men's fashion The readings provide a balanced range of important methodological approaches primary research and significant case studies The book is organized into thematic sections covering topics such as history theory subculture iconic items of clothing consumption and the media Each section is introduced and concludes with an annotated guide to further reading With exciting illustrations of men's dress from a range of historical periods and including readings from key scholars and new writers across a wide range of fields The Men's Fashion Reader is the essential introduction to the subject

Introduction The Field of Men's Fashion Part 1 A History of Men's Fashion Part 2 Masculinity and Sexuality Part 3 Icons The Evolution of Men's Wear Part 4 Subculture Part 5 Consuming and Creating Style Conclusion

Swinging Sixties Christopher Breward, David Gilbert, Jenny Lister, 2006-06 Swinging Sixties takes a new look at a revolutionary moment in 20th century fashion Its starting point is the publication in April 1966 of Time magazine's famous issue on London's reinvention as the new world centre of style Forty years on chapters by prominent authors reconsider the role played by designers retail entrepreneurs journalists photographers and film makers in promoting a new way of dressing that reverberated far beyond the British capital Illustrated with stunning new shots of key pieces from the V&A's dress collection alongside contemporary photographs posters and other ephemera the book relates the clothes to the rapidly changing social context of the times arguing for the central role played by fashion in the brave new world of Sixties pop culture

Feminist Periodicals, 2002

The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2004

Looking Flash Bronwyn Labrum, Fiona McKergow, Stephanie Gibson, 2007 Offering a fresh look at the role of clothes in New Zealand history this reference examines what New Zealanders wear and what they have worn from the shrinking bathing suit to the black singlet over the past three centuries proving that clothing reveals as much as it conceals The authors show that despite a reputation for being wary of looking flashy New Zealand has not always been a dowdy country Essays span the clothing of pre colonial Maori society marching girls and castaways and include 18th century heirloom dresses hand me downs wartime garb and kilts There are also extraordinary stories about the fate of a Maori cloak and an Otago farmer's remarkable collection of 1970s high fashion garments

New Books on Women and Feminism, 2014

The Making of the Modern Kitchen June Freeman, 2004-04 Kitchens are where we cook clean talk laugh and break things In this text the author follows homeowners through the process of shopping and purchasing a new kitchen and discusses the importance of layout colour shape and texture
