explained as merely the results of various aesthetic influences Between 1905 and 1907 Picasso entered a new phase called Rose Period characterised by a more cheerful style with orange and pink colours In Gosol in the summer of 1906 the nude female form assumed an extraordinary importance for Picasso he equated a depersonalised aboriginal simple nakedness with the concept of woman The importance that female nudes were to assume as subjects for Picasso in the next few months in the winter and spring of 1907 came when he developed the composition of the large painting Les Femmes d'Alger (O.J. Version O) Just as African art is usually considered the factor leading to the development of Picasso's classic aesthetics in 1907 the lessons of Cézanne are perceived as the cornerstone of this new progression This relates first of all to a spatial conception of the canvas as a composed entity subjected to a certain constructive system Georges Braque with whom Picasso became friends in the autumn of 1908 and together with whom he led Cubism during the six years of its apogee was amazed by the similarity of Picasso's pictorial experiments to his own He explained that Cubism's main direction was the materialisation of space After his Cubist period in the 1920s Picasso returned to a more figurative style and got closer to the surrealist movement He represented distorted and monstrous bodies but in a very personal style After the bombing of Guernica during 1937 Picasso made one of his most famous works which starkly symbolises the horrors of that war and indeed all wars In the 1960s his art changed again and Picasso began looking at the art of great masters and based his paintings on ones by Velázquez Poussin Goya Manet Courbet and Delacroix Picasso's final works were a mixture of style becoming more colourful expressive and optimistic Picasso died in 1973 in his villa in Mougins The Russian Symbolist Georgy Chulkov wrote Picasso's death is tragic Yet how blind and naïve are those who believe in imitating Picasso and learning from him Learning what For these forms have no corresponding emotions outside of Hell But to be in Hell means to anticipate death The Cubists are hardly privy to such unlimited knowledge
