Nunca Mas Never Again

Frederick Henry Gareau

Nunca Mas Never Again:

Annual Report Guatemala Human Rights Commission/USA.,1996 Nunca Mas (Never Again). Argentina. National Commission on Disappeared People,1986 Uruguay Leslie Jermyn,Winnie Wong,2010 The highly regarded Cultures of the World series celebrates the diversity of other cultures in this fully updated and expanded edition Deconstructing Psychotherapy Ian Parker,1999-05-17 I enjoyed this book and think that it should find a grateful and attentive readership in the practical field as well as being a central text in academic settings It will also be well received by those like myself for whom the interest is more in deconstructing than psychotherapy Dialogues This book takes the discursive and postmodern turn in psychotherapy a significant step forward and will be of interest to all those working in mental health who are concerned with challenges to oppression and processes of emancipation It achieves this by reflecting on the role of psychotherapy in contemporary culture developing critiques of language in psychotherapy that unravel its claims to personal truth The Struggle for the Past Elizabeth Jelin,2021-03-03 In all societies but especially those that have endured political violence the past is a shifting and contested terrain never fixed and always intertwined with present day cultural and political circumstances Organized around the Argentine experience since the 1970s within the broader context of the Southern Cone and international developments The Struggle for the Past undertakes an innovative exploration of memory s dynamic social character In addition to its analysis of how human rights movements have inflected public memory and democratization it gives an illuminating account of the emergence and development of Memory Studies as a field of inquiry lucidly recounting the author s own intellectual and personal journey during these decades Transitional Justice from Below Kieran McEvoy,Lorna McGregor,2008-07-15 Although relatively new as a distinct field of study transitional justice has become rapidly established as a vital field of enquiry From vaguely exotic origins on the outer edges of political science the study of justice in times of transition has emerged as a central concern of scholarship and practical policy making A process of institutionalisation has confirmed this importance The ICTY the ICTR the ICC hybrid tribunals in Sierra Leone and East Timor and local processes such as the Iraqi Higher Tribunal IHT have energised international law and international criminal justice scholarship The South African TRC was for a time lauded as the model for dealing with the past and remains one of the most researched institutions in the world It is one of approximately two dozen such institutions established in different transitional contexts over the past twenty years to assist conflicted societies to come to terms with a violent past At the national level international donors contribute huge sums of money to Rule of Law programmes designed to transform national justice systems This collection seeks to offer something quite different to the mainstream of scholarship in this area emphasising the need for bespoke solutions to different transitions rather than off the shelf models The collection is designed to offer a space for diversity prompted by a series of perspectives from below of societies beset by past violent conflict which have sought to effect their transition to justice In doing so the contributors have also sought to enrich discussion about the role of human rights in transition the continuing usefulness of perspectives from above and the still contested meanings of transition

Cry for Me, Argentina Annette H. Levine, 2008 Inspired by Madres de la Plaza de Mayo's work for memory and justice this book is an interdisciplinary study that draws on Latin American literary trauma performance and cultural studies to analyze the narrative of three Argentine women writers activists

Battles for Memory and Justice in Chile Joannie Jean, 2023-02-16 This book analyzes how the past and its representation in the public space have been a source of conflict in Chile since the end of the Pinochet regime From a multi disciplinary perspective sociology anthropology and history it studies the work of seven organizations of memory and human rights in Santiago Chile the struggles in which they are engaged and the main debates that have arisen in the country around the themes of impunity truth and memory Covering the period from 1998 to 2018 this book begins its analysis with the detention of Augusto Pinochet in London and concludes with the end of the second term of Michelle Bachelet The seven organizations studied range from family groups and survivors to sites of memory and consciousness Through analyses of the discourses produced by these organizations it examines particular historical periods 1998 2000 2001 2008 2009 2010 2011 2013 and 2014 2018 by focusing on strong debates and events of these conjunctures in order to highlight the struggles of meaning and the conflicts of legitimacy relating to these times In concrete terms particular attention is paid to the analysis of the main themes of litigation the way in which the actors are mobilized their objectives and how the past is evoked in the public space Battles for Memory and Justice in Chile Struggles for Remembrance Legitimacy and Accountability will be of interest to researchers from different disciplines and fields of study within the human and social sciences such as sociologists historians and anthropologists working in fields such as Latin American studies sociology of memory sociology of social movements and human rights studies

State Terrorism and the United States Frederick H. Gareau, 2004-08 This is a chilling analysis of the immediate predecessor of the US war on terrorism its counter insurgency policy during the Cold War The US promised a low level response uniquely tailored to assisting third world states to respond to local insurgencies seeking social change Drawing on the reports of Truth Commissions from six countries Guatemala El Salvador Argentina Chile South Africa and Indonesia Frederick Gareau examines a harrowing array of human rights abuses by US supported dictators governments and paramilitary groups against their own peoples He shows that state and para state forces committed by far the greatest proportion of violence and that these state repressions were perpetrated with Washington's full awareness complicity and military and politico diplomatic support if not at its instigation

Problems in Modern Latin American History Anna Rose, Leandro Benmergui, 2026-01-08 An innovative combination of diverse primary secondary sources and analysis this leading reader will get students thinking critically about modern Latin American history

State Terrorism and the United States Frederick Henry Gareau, 2004 This study exposes the support that administrations in Washington have given right wing dictatorships that committed terrorism especially during the cold war and war on terrorism It rejects the narrow definition of terrorism insisted on by Washington that exempts terrorism committed by governments state terrorism from the definition and for political reasons restricts the term solely to the private terrorism committed by private individuals or non governmental organizations Every one of the six truth commission reports used in the study one each for El Salvador Chile Argentina and South Africa and two with remarkably similar conclusions for Guatemala found that the governments were responsible for the great preponderance of terrorism and other acts of repression that occurred in their respective countries much more so than the guerrillas publisher web site *The life of st.
