Nurses Story:

The Nurse's Story Carol Gino, 2010-10-12 With uncompromising honesty Carol Gino strips the TV image to reveal the gritty truths of a nurse's life

The Language of Kindness Christie Watson, 2018-05-08 1 INTERNATIONAL BESTSELLER A moving lyrical beautifully written portrait of a nurse and the lives she has touched Christie Watson spent twenty years as a nurse and in this intimate poignant and remarkably powerful book she opens the doors of the hospital and shares its secrets She takes us by her side down hospital corridors to visit the wards and meet her unforgettable patients In the neonatal unit premature babies fight for their lives hovering at the very edge of survival like tiny Emmanuel wrapped up in a sandwich bag On the cancer wards the nurses administer chemotherapy and long after the medicine stops working something more important which Watson learns to recognize when her own father is dying of cancer In the pediatric intensive care unit the nurses wash the hair of a little girl to remove the smell of smoke from the house fire The emergency room is overcrowded as ever with waves of alcohol and drug addicted patients as well as patients like Betty a widow suffering chest pain frail and alone And the stories of the geriatric ward Gladys and older patients like her show the plight of the most vulnerable members of our society Through the smallest of actions nurses provide vital care and kindness All of us will experience illness in our lifetime and we will all depend on the support and dignity that nurses offer us yet the women and men who form the vanguard of our health care remain unsung In this age of fear hate and division Christie Watson has written a book that reminds us of all that we share and of the urgency of compassion

A Nurse's Story Tilda Shalof, 2010-02-05 The team of nurses that Tilda Shalof found herself working with in the intensive care unit ICU of a big city hospital was known as Laura's Line They were a bit wild smart funny disrespectful of authority but also caring and incredibly committed to their jobs Laura set the tone with her quick remarks Frances from Newfoundland was famous for her improvised recipes Justine the union rep wore t-shirts emblazoned with defiant slogans like Nurses Care But It's Not in the Budget Shalof was the one who had been to university The others accused her of being sooo sensitive They depended upon one another Working in the ICU was both emotionally grueling and physically exhausting Many patients quite simply were dying and the staff strove mightily to prolong their lives With their skill dedication and the resources of modern science they sometimes were almost too successful Doctors and nurses alike wondered if what they did for terminally ill patients was not in some cases too extreme A number of patients were admitted when it was too late even for heroic measures A boy struck down by a cerebral aneurysm in the middle of a little league hockey game A woman rescued too late from a burning house It all took its toll on the staff And yet on good days they thrived on what they did Shalof describes a colleague who is managing a crashing patient I looked at her Nicky was flushed with excitement She was doing five different things at the same time planning ahead for another five She was totally focused in her element in control completely at home with the chaos There was a huge smile on her face Nurses like to fix things If they can Shalof a veteran ICU nurse reveals what it is really like to work behind the closed hospital curtains The drama the sardonic humour the grinding workload the cheerful camaraderie the big issues and the small all are brought vividly to life in this remarkable book I Wasn't Strong Like This When I Started Out: True Stories of Becoming a Nurse Lee Gutkind,2013-02-25 This collection of true narratives reflects the dynamism and diversity of nurses who provide the first vital line of patient care Here nurses remember their first sticks first births and first deaths and reflect on what gets them through long demanding shifts and keeps them in the profession The stories reveal many voices from nurses at different stages of their careers One nurse in training longs to be trusted with more important procedures while another questions her ability to care for nursing home residents An efficient young emergency room nurse finds his life and career irrevocably changed by a car accident A nurse practitioner wonders whether she has violated professional boundaries in her care for a homeless man with AIDS and a home care case manager is the sole attendee at a funeral for one of her patients What connects these stories is the passion and strength of the writers who struggle against burnout and bureaucracy to serve their patients with skill empathy and strength

Discrimination Experienced in the Nursing Profession by Minority Nurses Melvina Semper DNP,2016-08-10 Even in today's diverse world discrimination unfortunately still occurs on the street in schools and in the workplace In her compilation of fifty true stories Dr Melvina Semper provides a disheartening look into the experiences of twenty-first century minority student nurses and practicing nurses working in New York City hospitals Dr Semper who holds three nursing degrees interviewed fifty nurses whose personal stories reveal the ill treatment and lack of promotion diversity moral support and other barriers students and nurses must face on the job From the Hispanic nurse whose patient requested that only a white nurse care for her to the Russian nurse who was only allowed to work night shifts to the minority nurse who witnessed an accidental patient death and then was told not to talk about it by her white managers Dr Semper not only shares real life stories but also highlights the need for stricter laws enforcement of affirmative action and the regulation of health care facilities to eradicate racism at all levels Discrimination Experienced in the Nursing Profession by Minority Nurses offers eye-opening stories that will create awareness of the obstacles racism and discrimination that minority student nurses and practicing nurses face while working in New York City hospitals

A Cup of Comfort for Nurses Colleen Sell,2006-02-13 A collection of more than fifty stories celebrating the hard work nurses perform on a daily basis A Cup of Comfort series presents this heartwarming collection of more than fifty real life stories of comfort solace and healing that honor the frequently undervalued contributions of dedicated nurses to the medical profession

Reflections on Nursing American Journal of Nursing,2016-10-03 Offering life and career-changing moments in nurses' lives the 80 true stories in Reflections on Nursing reveal nursing at its most demanding and fulfilling Written mainly by nurses offering care at home hospital or hospice these first person stories convey the professional burdens personal growth and inner realizations found in the course of patient care Whether you are a new or experienced practitioner or just fascinated by nursing care in action these inspiring true stories show nursing as both professional and life experience and often as an inspired journey

Experience the challenges and hard earned wisdom of these real life nursing moments Written by or about nurses of all experience levels and in numerous care settings including stories about memorable nurses written by patients family members and doctors Dive into these engrossing short stories and go on a journey with the nurse who inspires dignity and strength in a young soldier who is losing his wife the young nurse who stands up to a bullying preceptor the nurse who realizes her best friend a fellow nurse is stealing drugs from their unit the nurse struggling to give adequate care to seven patients at once on an understaffed unit the retired doctor who recalls the nurse who saved him as a young intern from mishandling a crucial situation with a dying patient the nurse who takes on an angry patient with a challenging case to offer special help and encouragement nurses who become a patient The nurse administrator who pushes hard for administrative decisions that will support nurses and improve patient care the inspiring patients who help nurses remember why they became a nurse

The Making of a Nurse Tilda Shalof,2010-02-05 The bestselling author of A Nurse's Story is back with more insider stories Tilda Shalof has been a caregiver all her life at home for her family at work for strangers but her skills didn't come easily From when she was a child taking care of her sick parents to her current position on an ICU team in one of Canada's largest hospitals there have always been daunting challenges and worthy rewards for her work With her trademark humour unflinching honesty and skilled storytelling Shalof describes her experiences becoming the capable nurse she is today After graduation from nurse's college finding no jobs in Toronto Shalof travelled to Tel Aviv Israel to work in a hospital for the first time finding adventure and young love in the process A summer stint as a camp nurse came with requests for condoms strange allergies and overly protective parents The Making of a Nurse contains these stories and much more and they are comforting entertaining shocking funny heart warming and heart wrenching From hospitals to home care they will give readers a glimpse into the life of a nurse and the hidden medical world

The Cadet Nurse Corps in Arizona: A History of Service Elsie M. Szecsy,2016-04-07 Congress established the U S Cadet Nurse Corps during World War II to meet the high demand for medical care The first federal women's education program it included a nondiscrimination policy decades before the civil rights movement The trailblazing cadets and innovative healthcare practices at the five participating teaching hospitals in Arizona left a lasting national legacy Sage Memorial Hospital was the country's only accredited nursing school for Native Americans Santa Monica's Hospital and nursing school was the first to integrate west of the Mississippi The daughter of a Navajo medicine man U S Army Nurse Corps second lieutenant Adele Slivers helped bridge a gap between traditional healing practices and modern medicine Arizona author Elsie Szecsy details momentous local challenges and achievements from this pivotal era in American medicine

Intensive Care: The Story of a Nurse Echo Heron,1988-05-12 This is a nurse's story unlike any other because Echo Heron is a very special nurse Dedicated to healing and helping in the harshest environments she spent ten years in emergency rooms and intensive care units Her story is unique penetrating and unforgettable Her story is real Compelling reading NEW YORK DAILY NEWS collection of stories illuminating a nurse's experiences throughout a career spanning fifty years some funny some sad and all true told as only an insider could tell them      A Nurse's Story, and Others Peter Baida, 2001 A collection of compelling stories that includes the first prize winner in the 1999 O Henry Awards      The History of Nursing in the British Empire Sarah A. Tooley, 1906      Women at War Elizabeth Norman, 2010-08-03 Norman tells the dramatic story of fifty women members of the Army Navy and Air Force Nurse Corps who went to war working in military hospitals aboard ships and with air evacuation squadrons during the Vietnam War Here in a moving narrative the women talk about why they went to war the experiences they had while they were there and how war affected them physically emotionally and spiritually      When the Nurse Becomes a Patient Cortney Davis, 2015 Paintings and reflections that share a nurse's personal experience of illness In the summer of 2013 Cortney Davis a nurse practitioner and author who often writes about her interactions with patients underwent routine one day surgery A surgical mishap led to a series of life altering and life threatening complications resulting in two prolonged hospital stays and a lengthy recovery During twenty six days in the hospital Davis experienced how suddenly a caregiver can become a care receiver and what it's like to be on the other side of the sickbed As a nurse she was accustomed to suffering and to the empathy such witnessing can evoke but as a patient she learned new and transforming lessons in pain fear loneliness abandonment and dependency in the fragility of health and life in the necessity of family support and ultimately in the importance of gratitude Once at home Davis wanted to respond to her illness creatively through her writing but the details seemed too intense too raw for words As her recovery progressed she found release in painting discovering an immediate connection between heart and hand between memory and canvas In a series of twelve paintings she reenvisioned episodes of her illness moments that remained and replayed in her consciousness ultimately providing an education in health care more resonant and more authentic than what she had found in nursing textbooks Before serving as a nurse in intensive care oncology and women's health Davis believed that she understood what hospitalized patients might be experiencing and how they might be coping Her own illness taught her how little she truly knew and how important it is that all caregivers professionals and family members alike become aware of the physical and the inner emotional needs of their seriously ill patients After the twelve paintings were completed Davis wrote brief commentaries for each image She used her remembrances to clarify and expand on her artwork thereby making her personal story accessible to others While every patient's journey and every caregiver's challenges are unique these intimate and revealing paintings and reflections offer a glimpse into the universal aspects of illness and recovery      Training School Methods for Institutional Nurses Charlotte Albina Aikens, 1919      The Trained Nurse and Hospital Review, 1923      Tumbleweed Elizabeth Catherine Elizabeth, Catherine Elizabeth, 2010-03 This book is a collection of short stories gathered over time and many places where I served as a nurse Each story is true and only the names are changed to protect the privacy of the patients As you read the first story about Micheal who the book is dedicated to you will feel as though you are right there seeing them through my eyes as I served God by serving them      The Black Angels Maria Smilios, 2023-09-19 Winner of the Christopher Award 2024 NPR Science Friday Best Summer Beach Reads 2024 Gotham Book Finalist 2024 NASW Science in Society Journalism Award Finalist 2024 PEN Hessel Tiltman Prize Finalist 2024 New York City 1929 A sanatorium a deadly disease and a dire nursing shortage In the pre antibiotic days when tuberculosis stirred people's darkest fears killing one in seven white nurses at Sea View New York's largest municipal hospital began quitting en masse Desperate to avert a public health crisis city officials summoned Black southern nurses luring them with promises of good pay a career and an escape from the strictures of Jim Crow But after arriving they found themselves on an isolated hilltop in the remote borough of Staten Island yet again confronting racism and consigned to a woefully understaffed sanatorium dubbed the pest house where it was said that no one left alive Spanning the Great Depression and moving through World War II and beyond this remarkable true story follows the intrepid young women known by their patients as the Black Angels For twenty years they risked their lives working under appalling conditions while caring for New York's poorest residents who languished in wards waiting to die or became guinea pigs for experimental surgeries and often deadly drugs But despite their major role in desegregating the New York City hospital system and their vital work in helping to find the cure for tuberculosis at Sea View these nurses were completely erased from history The Black Angels recovers the voices of these extraordinary women and puts them at the center of this riveting story celebrating their legacy and spirit of survival
