Masterpieces of Tapestry Geneviève Souchal, 1973 Masterpieces of Tapestry from the Fourteenth to the Sixteenth Century Geneviève Souchal, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 1974 The present exhibition is one of a series of five worked out in the partnership between the Metropolitan Museum and the Réunion des Musées Nationaux of France The others are Nineteenth Century French Drawings from The Metropolitan Museum of Art which closed at the Louvre last month and is now on view here Italian Renaissance Drawings from the Louvre to be shown at the Metropolitan in October Impressionism which will include some forty five of the greatest paintings in the style and will be seen at the Louvre in September and here in December and finally French Painting from David to Delacroix which is planned to open in Paris in the winter of 1974 followed by showings at the Detroit Institute of Art in the spring of 1975 and the Metropolitan in the summer Following its appearance at the Grand Palais in Paris Masterpieces of Tapestry is presented in New York in association with and under the patronage of the National Endowment for the Humanities and the National Endowment for the Arts and under the sponsorship of Mr and Mrs Ben Heller of New York City Without the extraordinary aid of the two Endowments and the enlightened generosity of these two art loving private patrons the exhibition simply would not have been possible here

Masterpieces of Tapestry Geneviève F. Souchal, 1973 Masterpieces of tapestry from the fourteenth to the sixteenth century Geneviève Souchal, 1973 Flemish and Dutch Artists in Early Modern England Mary Bryan H. Curd, 2017-07-05 By examining their production practices in a variety of genres including manuscript illustration glass painting and staining tapestry manufacture portrait painting and engraving this book explores how Netherlandish artists migrating to England in the early modern period overcame difficulties raised by their outsider status This study examines for the first time in this context the challenges of alien status to artistic production and the effectiveness of cooperation as a countermeasure The author demonstrates that collaboration was chief among the strategies that these foreigners chose to secure a position in London's changing art market Curd's exploration of these collaborations primarily follows Pierre Bourdieu's model of establishment and challenger in which dominance in a field of cultural production depends upon how much cultural political and economic capital can be accumulated and the effectiveness of the strategies used to confront competition The analysis presented here challenges received opinion that a collaborative work is only a joint effort of artists working together on a single monument by demonstrating that the participation of patrons and middlemen can also shape the final appearance of a work of art Furthermore this book shows that the strategic use of collaboration served the goal of competition by helping to establish foreign artists in the London art market and suggests that their coping strategies have implications for the study of immigrant behaviors today
