Masterworks from Munich ,1988 "Rubens and the Archaeology of Myth, 1610-1620" Aneta

Georgievska-Shine, 2017-07-05 Focusing on four Rubens paintings created between 1610 and 1620 Prometheus Bound The Rape of the Daughters of Leucippus Juno and Argus and The Finding of Erichthonius this book re-examines the artist's approach to classical mythology These theoretically informed readings provide a fuller understanding of the dynamics of Rubens's copious visual language and can serve as methodological templates for looking at and reading of many other of his complex inventions Even by the standards of erudition commonly applied to Rubens's oeuvre as a whole these four paintings were created during a period characterized by a particularly intense engagement on his part with questions of artistic originality and ideal style Furthermore the learned themes of these images clearly point to a rarefied audience that could appreciate the intertextual qualities of ancient myths Like the artist himself these ideal beholders cultivated a mode of viewing steeped in classical and renaissance theories of literary and rhetorical composition Thus through these close readings the author illuminates the manner in which the rhetorical and poetic conventions of the period as well as the growing appreciation for the various allegorical layers of fables lead to a better understanding of Rubens's pictorial archaeology of classical myths
