John Hutt, Stephen Tyler, Corinne Hutt, Helen Christopherson, 2022-11-21 Originally published in 1989 Play Exploration and Learning was a valuable contribution to the evaluation of nursery practice in Britain at the time this natural history of the activities of children and caring adults presents a comparative study of four types of provision for the under fives nursery schools nursery classes playgroups and day nurseries All four types of provision are seen as happy busy caring environments but they vary greatly in terms of staffing levels training and material provision The authors look at the play of three to five year old children and the activities of the adults who care for them They examine in detail children's choices of materials and their use of them with special attention given to the way language is used by both children and adults during play They also describe adults' expectations of the various provisions and the values of the activities pursued in them Of special interest is the emphasis placed by adults upon fantasy play and the often large discrepancy between expectation and practice Also covered are the difference in the play activities of part time and full time nursery school children and the transition from pre school to first school The book will still be of historical interest to pre school practitioners to developmental psychologists and to educational administrators Nursery Rhymes Activity Book Kidsbooks, 2021-03-16 Five-Minute Sunday
