Modern Australian Painting 1975 198:

When Modern Became Contemporary Art Charles Green,Heather Barker,2024-09-19 This book is a portrait of the period when modern art became contemporary art It explores how and why writers and artists in Australia argued over the idea of a distinctively Australian modern and then postmodern art from 1962 the date of publication of a foundational book Australian Painting 1788 1960 up to 1988 the year of the Australian Bicentennial Across nine chapters about art exhibitions curators and critics this book describes the shift from modern art to contemporary art through the successive attempts to define a place in the world for Australian art But by 1988 Australian art looked less and less like a viable tradition inside which to interpret our art Instead vast gaps appeared since mostly male and often older White writers had limited their horizons to White Australia alone National stories by White men like borders had less and less explanatory value Underneath this a perplexing subject remained the absence of Aboriginal art in understanding what Australian art was during the period that established the idea of a distinctive Australian modern and then contemporary art This book reflects on why the embrace of Aboriginal art was so late in art museums and histories of Australian art arguing that this was because it was not part of a national story dominated by colonial then neo colonial dependency It is important reading for all scholars of both global and Australian art and for curators and artists
