Modern Chinese Writers ,2015    Modern Chinese Authors: Craft, Commitment and Survival ,1988

Contemporary Chinese Fiction Writers Laifong Leung,2016-07-28 In the years since the death of Mao Zedong interest in Chinese writers and Chinese literature has risen significantly in the West In 2000 Gao Xingjian became the first Chinese writer to receive the Nobel Prize for Literature followed by Mo Yan in 2012 and writers such as Ha Jin and Da Sijie have also become well known in the West Despite this progress the vast majority of Chinese writers remain largely unknown outside of China This book introduces the lives and works of eighty contemporary Chinese writers and focuses on writers from the Rightist generation Bai Hua Gao Xiaosheng Liu Shaotang writers of the Red Guard generation Li Rui Wang Anyi Post Cultural Revolution Writers as well as others Unlike earlier works it provides detailed often first hand biographical information on this wide range of writers including their career trajectories major themes and artistic characteristics In addition to this each entry includes a critical presentation and evaluation of the writer s major works a selected bibliography of publications that includes works in Chinese works translated into English and critical articles and books available in English Offering a valuable contribution to the field of contemporary Chinese literature by making detailed information about Chinese writers more accessible this book will be of interest to students and scholars Chinese Literature Contemporary Literature and Chinese Studies    Subjectivity and Sexuality in Contemporary Chinese Feminist Writing Ruttapond

Swanpitak,2025-02-17 This book explores representations of female sexuality and subjectivity in contemporary Chinese fiction by three women writers published from 1986 to 2000 from the perspective of poststructuralist feminism It discusses the representative works of authors Wang Anyi Tie Ning and Chi Li who are well known in the Chinese literary field However their works have not to date been analysed through the poststructuralist feminism s notions of subjectivity femininity and transgression This book then provides detailed analysis of each writer and draws comparisons between their works to provide an extended consideration of female sexuality and subjectivity within post Mao Chinese fiction In this respect this book not only offers fresh insights into the three authors fiction but also contributes to the feminist study of Chinese women s writing Additionally the research contributes to a better understanding of contemporary Chinese culture in relation to patriarchy misogyny feminism differences and resistance It is relevant to scholars in the fields of China studies Chinese literature feminist literature and gender studies    Women and Gender in Contemporary Chinese Societies Shanshan

Du,Ya-chen Chen,2013-03-04 Recent attention to historical geographic and class differences in the studies of women and gender in China has expanded our understanding of the diversity and complexity of gendered China Nevertheless the ethnic dimension of this subject matter remains largely overlooked particularly concerning women s conditions and gender status Consequently the patriarchy and its oppression of women among the Han the ethnic majority in China are often inaccurately or erroneously associated with the whole gendered heritage of China epitomized by the infamous traditions of footbinding and female infanticide Such academic and popular predisposition belies the fact that gender systems in China span a wide spectrum ranging from extreme Han patriarchy to Lahu gender egalitarianism The authors contributing to this book have collectively initiated a systematic effort to bridge the gap between understanding the majority Han and ethnic minorities in regard to women and gender in contemporary Chinese societies By achieving a quantitative balance between articles on the Han majority and those on ethnic minorities this book transcends the ghettoization of ethnic minorities in the studies of Chinese women and gender The eleven chapters of this volume are divided into three sections which jointly challenge the traditions and norms of Han patriarchy from various perspectives The first section focuses on gender traditions among ethnic minorities which compete with the norms of Han patriarchy The second section emphasizes the impact of radical social transformation on gender systems and practices among both Han and ethnic minorities The third section underscores socio cultural diversity and complexity in resistance to Han patriarchal norms from a broad perspective This book complements previous scholarship on Chinese women and gender by expanding our investigative lens beyond Han patriarchy and providing images of the multiethnic landscape of China By identifying the Han as an ethnically marked category and by bringing to the forefront the diverse gender systems of ethnic minorities this book encourages an increasing awareness of and sensitivity to the cross cultural diversity of gendered China both in academia and beyond

The Subject in Crisis in Contemporary Chinese Literature Rong Cai,2004-05-31 Post Mao China produced two parallel discourses on the human subject in the New Era 1976 1989 One was an autonomous Enlightenment humanist self aimed at replacing the revolutionary paragon that had dominated under Mao The other was a more problematic subject suffering from either a symbolic physical deformity or some kind of spiritual paralysis that undermines its apparent normalcy How do we explain the stubborn presence in the literature of the 1980s and 1990s of this crippled agent who fails to realize the humanist autonomy envisioned by post Mao theorists What are the anxieties and tensions embedded in this incongruity and what do they reveal This illuminating and original critical study of the crippled subject in post Mao literature offers a detailed textual analysis of the work of five well known contemporary writers Han Shaogong Can Xue Yu Hua Mo Yan and Jia Pingwa The author investigates not only the literary characters within the texts but also their creators real subjects in history Chinese writers whose own agency was being tested and established in the search for a new subjectivity She argues that reenacting the Maoist legacy the literary search failed to provide a viable model for a postrevolutionary China In addition the deficiency and inadequacy of the subject cannot always be contained in the Communist past a history to be transcended in the design of modernity after Mao The representation of the problematic subject thus punctured post Mao optimism and foreshadowed the eventual abandonment of the move to rethink subjectivity in the 1990s By diving beneath the euphoria of the 1980s and the confusion and frustration of the 1990s these critical readings offer a unique perspective with which to gauge the complexity of China s quest for modernity and a fuller understanding of the self s multifaceted experience in the post Mao era

A Guide to Chinese Literature Wilt Idema, Lloyd Haft, 1997 Selected for Choice's list of Outstanding Academic Books for 1997. A comprehensive overview of China's 3 000 years of literary history from its beginnings to the present day. After an introductory section discussing the concept of literature and other features of traditional Chinese society crucial to understanding its writings, the second part is broken into five major time periods: earliest times to 100 c.e., 100-1000, 1000-1875, 1875-1915, and 1915 to the present, corresponding to changes in book production. The development of the major literary genres is traced in each of these periods. The reference section in the cloth edition includes an annotated bibliography of more than 120 pages; the paper edition has a shorter bibliography and is intended for classroom use.

Li Ang's Visionary Challenges to Gender, Sex, and Politics Yenna Wu, 2013-12-18 Li Ang (1952) is a famous and prolific feminist writer from Taiwan who challenges and subverts sociocultural traditions through her daring explorations of sex, violence, women's bodies, and desire and national politics. As a taboo-breaking writer and social critic, she uses fiction to expose injustice and represent human nature. Her political engagement further affords her a visionary perspective for interrogating the problematic intersection of gender and politics. The ambivalence in her fictional representations invites controversies and debates. Her works have thus helped raise awareness of the problems, open up discussions, and bring about social and intellectual changes. Some of her works have been translated into such foreign languages as English, French, German, and Japanese. In her career spanning over forty years, she has won numerous literary awards. Li Ang's Visionary Challenges to Gender, Sex, and Politics is the first collection of critical essays in English on Li Ang and some of her most celebrated works. Contributing historians examine her vital roles in the Taiwanese women's movement and political arenas as well as the social influence of her publications on extramarital affairs. Contributing literary scholars investigate the feminist controversy over her 1983 award-winning novel Shafu: Killing the Husband (translated as The Butcher's Wife) and offer alternative interpretative strategies such as looking into figurations of biopower and relationship dynamics. They dissect the subtle political significance in her magnificent novel Miyuan: The labyrinthine garden (1991) and explosive political fiction Beigang xianglu renren cha (Everyone sticks incense into the Beigang censor) (1997) from the perspective of gender and national identity scrutinize the multiple discursive levels in her superb novel Qishi yinyuan zhi Taiwan Zhongguo qingren Seven prelives of affective affinity Taiwan China lovers 2009 and analyze the dis embodied subversion accomplished by her fantastic Kandejian de gui Visible ghosts 2004 As the first volume in English to examine Li Ang's trail blazing discourse on gender sex and politics this work will inspire more studies of her oeuvre and contribute usefully to the fields of modern Taiwanese and Chinese literature feminist studies and comparative literature 中国现代文学研究, 1945-1992 Kam

China Perspectives ,2004 Ethics and Aesthetics of Freedom in American and Chinese Realism Wenyi Xu,2003 The goal of this monograph is to complicate the postmodernist argument that art is always already political and does so by studying literary realism as practiced by American and Chinese writers utilizing the perspective of Michel Foucault. It performs a careful reading of Henry James's The Portrait of a Lady and The Princess Casamassima, William Dean Howell's A Hazard of New Fortunes and The World of Chance, Liu Binyan's People or Monster and Sound is Better Than Silence, and Zhang Xianliang's Half Man is Woman and Getting Used to Dying. It demonstrates that both sets of realist writers provide interpretive presentations of social realities in order to dismantle cultural appearances: the gospel of wealth, social Darwinism, political liberalism, party purity, and historical progress.
