The Long Now Uta Barth, 2010 Often blurred or with only one element rendered sharply clinging to the margin of the composition Uta Barth's deceptively simple photographs of ordinary ambiguous places are both elegant and challenging Walls windows patches of light on a rug the glow of an out of focus glance toward the horizon all these provoke phenomenological reflections on perception and subjectivity often suspending a viewer in the midst of the customary attempt to make sense of what is being seen to reduce it to an accessible package of associations and meaning Certain expectations are unfulfilled expectations of what a photograph normally depicts of how we are supposed to read the space in the image of how a picture normally presents itself on the wall Barth has said This kind of questioning and reorientation is the point of entry and discovery not only in a cognitive way but in an almost visceral physical and personal sense This comprehensive monographic volume presents a definitive overview of Barth's works fully illustrated with more than 300 full color reproductions spanning from her earliest photographs to her most recent New texts by Russell Ferguson former Chief Curator of the Hammer Museum in Los Angeles Holly Myers art critic and writer and renowned scholar Jonathan Crary provide critical perspectives on the work of this visionary artist Born in Berlin in 1958 and now resident in Los Angeles Uta Barth is represented in the collections of The Museum of Modern Art The Metropolitan Museum of Art the Guggenheim the Whitney the Museum of Contemporary Art Los Angeles and the Tate in London In 2007 Barth was named a Broad Art Foundation Fellow MoMA Rebecca Roberts, 2007 Contemporary Artists: L-Z Sara Pendergast, Tom Pendergast, 2002 you're young inexperienced and have only a few textbooks to guide you. Then a thirteen-year-old girl Squib Hamilton quite literally washes up on his doorstep setting in motion a devastating chain of events. Forty years later and Cora Hamilton is waging a constant battle to keep Absolution Creek in business. She's ostracized by the local community and hindered by her inability to move on from the terrible events of her past which haunt her both physically and emotionally. Only one man knows what really happened in 1923. A dying man who is riding towards Absolution Creek seeking his own salvation. From the gleaming foreshores of Sydney Harbour to the vast Australian outback this is a story of betrayal and redemption and of an enduring love which defies even death.
