French Art W. C. Brownell,2016-07-09 Excerpt from opening chapter More than that of any other modern people French art is a national expression It epitomizes very definitely the national sthetic judgment and feeling and if its manifestations are even more varied than are elsewhere to be met with they share a certain character that is very salient Of almost any French picture or statue of any modern epoch one s first thought is that it is French The national quite overshadows the personal quality In the field of the fine arts as in nearly every other in which the French genius shows itself the results are evident of an intellectual co operation which insures the development of a common standard and tends to subordinate idiosyncrasy The fine arts as well as every other department of mental activity reveal the effect of that social instinct which is so much more powerful in France than it is anywhere else or has ever been elsewhere except possibly in the case of the Athenian republic
