Sparke, 2009 The Museum of Modern Art and 5 Continents Editions recently launched this series of books dedicated to industrial and graphic design. Each volume offers an overview of a single country's design achievements and illustrates its particular design history and aesthetic by showcasing renowned architects and designers through exemplary works drawn from The Museum of Modern Art's unmatched collection. This season they take on Japan. Japanese designers' special ability to combine aesthetic tradition with contemporary visual culture and material innovation has created a distinctive and exceptionally successful design industry in Japan which has produced such divergent icons of Modern design as Sori Yanagi's Butterfly Stool, the Sony Walkman, the Honey Pop Armchair by Tokujin Yoshioka and the Toyota Prius. This volume traces the development of Japanese design from the country's craft revival in the early twentieth century to the extraordinary objects of high technology that have been a specialty of Japanese designers since the middle of the century. Antonelli's lively introduction provides an overview of Japan's design culture while an essay and timeline by Penny Sparke illuminate the masterpieces of Modern Japanese design that are superbly reproduced in this volume's plate section.

Japanese Interior Design Michelle Galindo, 2011 A première vue l'architecture intérieure japonaise semble se fonder sur des contradictions. Des couleurs simples cachent des concepts compliqués et ludiques. Des espaces hyper modernes sont construits avec des matériaux traditionnels et le rapport entre la nature et l'architecture est parfois tendu, parfois harmonieux. Certains aspects restent constants. Le minimalisme chic domine, les couleurs sont surtout claires et chaudes. Les créateurs trouvent toujours des solutions extraordinaires des problèmes ordinaires. Cet ouvrage présente 47 projets d'architecture intérieure japonaise contemporaine comprenant des hôpitaux, des bureaux, des bars, des restaurants et des domiciles privés. Des concepteurs de renommée internationale comme Jo Nagasaka et nendo ainsi que de nouveaux talents montrent que le pays du Soleil Levant est aussi le pays de la créativité sans fin.
