Different Models in Early Childhood Education Sevda Bekman,1990 Early Childhood Education in the 21st Century Hani Yulindrasari,Vina Adriany,Yeni Rahmawati,Fonny Hutagalung,Sarita Gálvez,Ade Gafar Abdullah,2019-09-24 Providing a selection of papers presented at ICECE 2018 a biennial conference organised by the Early Childhood Education Program Universitas Pendidikan Indonesia The conference s general theme was Finding Alternative Approaches Theories Frameworks and Practices of Early Childhood Education in the 21th Century Distinct from other periods of time the 21st century is characterised by so much knowledge easy to access but hard to grasp borderless and hyper connected society mediated by the internet high competitiveness not only within a country but across countries high mobility and widening economic discrepancy as neoliberalism has strengthened its influence on every sector of human life The children of today will face many things that have not yet been invented or discovered sometimes beyond expectations Scholars and teachers of early childhood education need to be aware of these astonishing changes The way children and childhood are seen cannot stay the same and so does the way children of this century are educated The conference opened a discussion about finding alternative approaches theories and best practices of early childhood education for a rapidly changing and globalised society Instructional Models for Early Childhood Education ,2002

Visions of Childhood John Cleverley,Dennis Phillips,1986 Throughout history certain theories of childhood have influenced the way we have understood cared for and educated our young These theories form the bases of our attitudes toward children and underpin our popular childrearing practices Yet they have passed through history for the most part unexamined In Visions of Childhood the authors unveil the central and often surprising notions that have shaped our conceptions of childhood in the Western world Bringing the skills of the historian and philosopher to bear the authors examine those visions of the child that have become the most influential including the work of Locke Rousseau Freud Piaget Marx and Dewey In probing these ideas the authors trace the development of a variety of identifiable models including the environmentalist the atomistic and the deterministic Visions of Childhood is an ideal primary or supplementary text for courses in child development and psychology early childhood education philosophy of education and other foundations courses It will be a valuable resource to historians philosophers and inservice practitioners as well It is provocative in its analysis of theories of education and it challenges readers to carefully examine their own assumptions about the child child development and child rearing Children Today
