Modern Figurative Paintings 1890 1950 The Paris Connection:

Modern Figurative Paintings Martin Wolpert, Jeffrey Winter, 2004 The first half of the 19th Century spawned one of the most exciting concentrations of artists and artistic innovation in history. The French impressionists opened the door to creative freedoms never before experienced and a community rich in artistic and intellectual talent coalesced to forever change the direction of art. This book documents more than 150 artists who worked, studied, and exhibited in Paris between 1890 and 1950. Many of them have been completely overlooked by scholars and art historians. Their work encompasses the La Belle Epoque, Postimpressionist, Cubist, and School of Paris movements. More than 375 color images of their paintings document this fabulous cultural explosion and also present a visual time capsule showing the populace at work and at play in bars, cabarets, and jazz clubs, even scenes of the artists' own studios. This book has been a labor of love many years in the making. Collectors, curators, and historians will find it an invaluable tool for understanding the art of this period. By documenting artists who have not been written about for many years, the authors offer insight to their paintings which can still be acquired at equitable prices.

Art Now Gallery Guide, 2005-05 China! Dian Tong, 2005 When the Cultural Revolution ended in China, the long-repressed artists reemerged. By the mid-1980s an active experimental art movement appeared in China, which one critic dubbed the 85 New Wave. Here is an expansive overview of the painting in China over the past twenty years. Featured are works by over 80 contemporary Chinese artists in 250 full-color photographs with important information about the evolution of the fine arts in China.

American Book Publishing Record, 2004 Bob Thompson Thelma Golden, Judith Wilson, Whitney Museum of American Art, 1998-01-01 Bob Thompson (1937-1966) was a figurative expressionist painter active in literary, musical, and artistic circles in New York and Europe from the late 1950s until his death in 1966. In the first book devoted solely to Thompson, the life and work of this pivotal figure in modern American art history and African American culture receive the attention they deserve. Judith Wilson situates Bob Thompson within the context of both contemporary artistic production and cultural trends of the fifties and sixties. She uses interviews, Thompson's diary entries, and letters to his family and his work to give a thoughtful and thorough interpretation of his art and persona. She traces Thompson's development psychologically, socially, and artistically, effectively portraying his first encounters with art and bohemian culture and his intensely active period in Europe shortly before his death in Rome at the age of 29. Bob Thompson's life intersects several important currents in recent American culture, and his work reveals an unfinished quest for communal identity, says Wilson. His use of postmodern techniques of appropriation and pastiche embraced both the Western tradition and cultural resources specific to the African American experience. The publication of Bob Thompson recognizes the important role of the artist in the vanguard of twentieth-century American art.
