Narrative and Experience in Multicultural Education JoAnn Phillion,Ming Fang He,F. Michael Connelly,2005-03-23 Narrative and Experience in Multicultural Education provides compelling stories that raise questions advance understandings and promote insight into the challenges and hopes of teaching for diversity and democracy The works contained are compelling for the stories they tell and as such there is value in their presence That the thoughtful reader can glean important lessons with respect to multicultural education and the value of narrative inquiry as academic disciplines is intellectual icing on the cake Francisco Rios University of Wyoming This work is a very exciting important and badly needed piece of scholarship offered by some of the most leading edge professors in the field The diversity and diverse viewpoints it presents are unparalleled in the field of education Cheryl J Craig

University of Houston The narratives in this book allow readers to put a human face to an issue related to multicultural education A reflective reader will begin to see himself herself in the narratives of the text Edmundo F Litton Loyola Marymount University The inclusion of chapters that deal with classroom realities elevate the text for education teacher candidates above those existing volumes that tend to deal with multi inter cultural issues in the abstract One of the strengths of this volume is that it will resonate with new and experienced classroom practitioners Jon G Bradley McGill University

Narrative and Experience in Multicultural Education explores the untapped potential that narrative and experiential approaches have for understanding multicultural issues in education The research featured in the book reflects an exciting new way of thinking about human experience The studies focus on the lives of students teachers parents and communities highlighting experiences seldom discussed in the literature The authors are diverse and their inquiries are far ranging in terms of content ethnic groups studied and geographic locations They also bring their personal experience to the inquiries actively participate in the lives of the people with whom they work care deeply about the concerns of their participants and search for ways to act upon these concerns Most importantly the work emphasizes the understanding of experience and transforming this understanding into social and educational significance Key Features Addresses new ways to explore multicultural issues in education rather than relying on theoretical generalizations the book focuses explicitly on individual and group experiences Emphasizes the transformation of experience into education especially through the study of complex multicultural issues Challenges readers assumptions of multicultural issues by offering numerous narrative accounts and research studies for work with various ethnic groups Narrative and Experience in Multicultural Education is designed for use in courses in multicultural education and qualitative research especially in departments of education anthropology and sociology Professional educators researchers and consultants will also find this a valuable introduction to narrative research and a welcome addition to the literature

Learning from Difference: Comparative Accounts of Multicultural Education Joseph Lo Bianco,Aydin Bal,2016-03-30 This book analyses the experiences of multicultural education in nine very different international settings uncovering insights from a vast variety of educational contexts Taking a multi critical approach in reporting and discussing problems faced by increasingly multicultural and multilingual societies the nine case studies reflect radically different assumptions about what counts as difference and what should be the appropriate ways for education systems to respond to differences While each country s approach seems unique analysis of the divergent treatments of internal population diversity elicits a genuinely global instance of the increasingly shared phenomenon of cultural pluralism Discussing various successes and failures of policy enactment theory pedagogy and management of diversity the book isolates both the differences and similarities in the unique geopolitical and socio historical contexts of the countries investigated A key value of the book is that it greatly expands the range of settings experiences epistemologies ontologies and practical experiences that are typically encountered in mainstream discussion of what counts as multicultural education In effect all societies are in some way dealing with difference this volume helps widen the scope of reflection and thus facilitates increased global learning from difference
