Multilateral Activities in South East Asia Michael W. Everett, Mary A. Sommerville, 1995 Edited by Michael W Everett and Mary A Sommerville Includes papers presented at the 1995 Pacific Symposium sponsored by the National Defense University Reflects the views of many Asia Pacific nations regarding the rise of multilateralism in South East Asia Presents papers on the five subtopics of the symposium the South East Asia Perspective the South East Asia Environment View from the Peripheral Nations AFTA ASEAN Free Trade Area APEC Asia Pacific Economic Cooperation and the WTO World Trade Organization How Do They Fit Together How Much and What Kind of Multilateralism and A Look Toward the Future Focuses on the importance of marketing among Pacific nations Arms Control in the Asia-Pacific Region USAF Institute for National Security Studies, 1999 Military Affairs Catalog United States. Superintendent of Documents, 2000 Pacific Asia? Melvin Gurtov, 2002 Emphasizing human and environmental security over traditional power politics Mel Gurtov offers a provocative reinterpretation of security in the Asia Pacific region The author questions a number of prevailing assumptions such as the China threat a U S centered balance of power and the necessity of a greater Japanese security role He argues instead for a cooperative framework for future security that focuses on people s basic needs is sensitive to Asian nationalism and gradually replaces military power with developmental priorities With its concise appraisals of the security policies of the United States China Japan the two Koreas and the ASEAN countries this work will be a valued reference for policymakers scholars and students alike Zones of Amity, Zones of Enmity James Sperling, Yogendra Malik, David Louscher, 2021-11-15 This volume addresses the problem of military and economic cooperation in the Asia Pacific particularly the impact of the end of the Cold War on the evolution of its four regional subsystems Australasia Southern Asia Southeast Asia and Northeast Asia the level of institutionalization in its economic and military dimensions and the tendency towards regional amity or regional enmity It investigates the regional institutions of military and economic security organizing the interstate relations of the Asia Pacific assesses the military and economic ambitions of China Japan and the United States and suggests that the clash of civilizations thesis is of limited use in understanding the dynamics of interstate relations in this centrally important area of the world Contributors are Shigekio N Fukai Haruhiro Fukui Norman A Graham Steven A Hoffmann Jim Rolfe Sheldon Simon James Sperling and Robert M Uriu The Third World Beyond the Cold War Louise Fawcett, Yezid Sayigh, 1999-04-01 The Third World Beyond the Cold War presents an overview of the changes brought about in Third World countries since the end of the cold war The book does so in two ways by highlighting major areas of change in the Third World and using regional case studies as a means of isolating changes specific to certain regions The themes chosen by the editors economics politics security are not of course exhaustive but are broadly interpreted so as to encompass the major areas of change among Third World countries The regional case studies Asia Pacific Latin America South Asia Africa the Middle East were selected to bring out both the themes and the diversity of experience The essays written by leading scholars in the field of International Relations caters for a variety of constituencies those who seek the big picture in understanding the Third World in International Relations those who look for general patterns explanations and trends in Third World politics and those who seek up to date information and analysis on the progress of different regions

Regionalism and Multilateralism Amitav Acharya, 2003 These essays written between 1990 and 2000 cover the most significant phase of multilateral institution building in the Asia Pacific region They deal with the emergence of regionalism in Southeast Asia ASEAN's transition to the post Cold War era the role of the ASEAN Regional Forum the engagement of China the changing relationship between sovereignty and regionalism and prospects for the regional institutions such as ASEAN APEC and the ARF after the Asian economic crisis The essays address the most challenging issues of regional order and articulate an institutionalist understanding of international relations in the region This updated second edition includes four new chapters and two revised chapters

ASEAN's Cooperative Security Enterprise H. Katsumata, 2010-01-20 Katsumata demonstrates that something interesting is taking place inside the ASEAN Regional Forum ARF He shows that an association of minor powers in Southeast Asia is promoting its cooperative security norm and influencing the policies of its external partners Thus the ARF is one of the important pathways to regional security

Regionalism in Asia See Seng Tan, 2009 Especially since the Cold War research relating to international relations in Asia has grown exponentially and to make sense of what is now a vast and unwieldy corpus of literature this collection from the Critical Issues in Modern Politics series brings together the best and most influential work in the field

Asian Security Order Muthiah Alagappa, 2003 More than a decade has passed since the end of the Cold War but Asia still faces serious security challenges These include the current security environment in the Korean peninsula across the Taiwan Strait and over Kashmir the danger of nuclear and missile proliferation and the concern with the rising power of China and with American dominance Indeed some experts see Asia as a dangerous and unstable place Alagappa disagrees maintaining that Asia is a far more stable predictable and prosperous region than it was in the postindependence period This volume also takes account of the changed security environment in Asia since September 11 2001 Unlike many areas studies approaches Alagappa's work makes a strong case for taking regional politics and security dynamics seriously from both theoretical and empirical approaches The first part of this volume develops an analytical framework for the study of order the salience of the different pathways to order is examined in the second part the third investigates the management of specific security issues and the final part discusses the nature of security order in Asia

Japanese Foreign Policy A. Fukushima, 1999-02-26

Japanese foreign policy in international political affairs particularly after the Second World War was criticized as relying solely on bilateralism and dismissed as blindly emulating American foreign policy This book examines Japanese multilateralism from the Paris Peace Conference in 1919 to its latest bid for a permanent seat on the UN Security Council At the threshold of the twenty first century the author asserts that Japan can play a more proactive role in the United Nations and in the Asia Pacific through its cooperative security approach with emphasis on prevention of conflicts Asia-Pacific's Security Dilemma Australian Defence Studies Centre,1998 Conflict Resolution and Regional Cooperation in South Asia Pervaiz Iqbal Cheema,Imtiaz H.
