The Munros and Tops Chris Townsend,2013-05-24 When Chris Townsend reached the summit of Ben Hope in Sutherland he walked his way into the record books After 118 days in which he had covered more than 1 700 miles and climber over 575 000 feet he had completed the first single continuous journey of all 277 Munros and 240 Tops in the Scottish Highlands This is the story of that remarkable walk from the start on Ben More on the Isle of Mull through to the finish the equivalent of climbing Mount Everest 18 times For the author the real enjoyment of the walk was not in counting up the summits or the miles but in spending week after week in the hills and living in the wilds In THE MUNROS AND TOPS Chris Townsend recalls the joys of observing the birds and animals the trees and flowers the changing shapes of the hills and the play of light on their slopes He writes about the complexities of route finding and the challenge of rugged terrain and of coping with often atrocious weather conditions Illustrated with photographs taken during the walk this is a stirring account of a unique achievement

a headily addictive pursuit with the holy grail of compleation the ultimate aim currently achieved by around 7 000 Munroists It all began in 1891 when Sir Hugh Munro's Tables of 3 000 foot Scottish mountains appeared in The Scottish Mountaineering Club Journal Since then this innocent compilation of hills has become a hallowed hit list Andrew Dempster traces the meandering course of this cult activity which has gone from trickle to torrent in the space of a century From early map makers to current record breakers from the why and the wry to wildness and well being The Munros A History explores the compulsions and philosophies underpinning the Munro phenomenon Higher Ground Martin Moran,2021-11-11 Martin Moran lived life in the mountains to the full He climbed and guided in the Alps Norway and the Himalayas sharing life changing adventures along the way Scotland Chris Townsend,2011-03-30 This comprehensive book is an excellent planning resource for those who wish to venture into the Scottish mountains Whether you are planning a walk scramble climb or ski tour this larger format guide has all the information the independent mountain lover needs The guide covers all the mountainous areas of Scotland from south to north divided into seven regions Each regional chapter covers individual glens important for mountain goers groups of hills that form coherent massifs and individual hills of significance However this is not a route guide and detailed descriptions are not provided The aim of the book is to inspire and entertain as well as inform to show first time visitors just what the Scottish mountains have to offer and provide a new perspective for those who have been before In the descriptions author Chris Townsend has given his opinions as to the relative qualities of the walks glens lochs mountains and the landscape in general and highlighted those he thinks are the best the area has to offer Includes Descriptions of all the Scottish mountains area by area from south to north to help you identify the best locations for hill walking mountaineering climbing and ski touring Classic ascents and walks described from scrambles up Ben Nevis to ski tours in the Cairngorms A planning tool for long distance treks Another Shore Roger Legg,2013 Ever since Boy Scout days Roger Legg has obtained great pleasure from long distance walking On the whole he does not like following footpath routes designated by Acts of Parliament nor following books of instructions on how to get from A to B proceed for one mile turn left at the farm gate be careful of the marsh at the bottom of hill It all sounds a bit like joining the army and often fails to get the walker off the beaten track Rather he prefers to plan his own route to use map and compass This book is a record of six journeys which he made in the British Isles during the years 1980 to 1991 He hopes the reader will enjoy his adventures as that great walker George Borrow said many years ago these British Islands where more strange things are every day occurring whether in road or street house or dingle The Scottish Mountaineering Club Guide James Reid Young,1921
