Spirit Matters

Philip Gabriel,2006-01-01 Spirit Matters is a ground breaking work the first to explore a broad range of writings on spirituality in contemporary Japanese literature It draws on a variety of literary works from enormously popular fiction Miura Ayako s HyEten and Shirokari Pass and the novels of Murakami Haruki to more problematic serious fiction Ee KenzaburE s Somersault to nonfiction meditations on martyrdom and miracles Sono Ayako s Kiseki and the dynamics of religious cults Murakami s interviews with members of Aum ShinrikyE in Underground

The first half of the volume focuses on the work of two women Christian writers Miura Ayako and Sono Ayako Combining a decidedly evangelistic bent with the formulas of the popular novel Miura s 1964 novel HyEten Freezing Point and its sequel are entertaining perennial bestsellers but also treat spiritual issues like original sin that are largely unexplored in modern Japanese literature Sono s Kiseki Miracles and Miura s Shiokari Pass focus on the meaning of self sacrifice and the miraculous and survey both the paths by which people come to faith and the spiritual doubts that assail them Perhaps most striking for Western readers Gabriel reveals how Miura s novel shows the lingering resistance to Christianity and its oppositional nature in Japan and how in Kiseki Sono considers the kind of spiritual struggles many Japanese Christians experience as they try to reconcile their belief in a minority faith

In the Borderlands of Teaching and Learning

Bryant Griffith,2019-02-11 The craft of teaching and learning is like playing in a symphony orchestra every instrument has a voice and every voice is integral to the whole The arts history anthropology and philosophy and their forged discourses offer us a series of cautionary tales about the multiplicity of ways we can see and understand our world ways we often ignore in the classroom In the case of epistemology and pedagogy in particular we have hinged our understanding on a binary of opposites engaged in a dialectic dance and a type of discourse constructed to describe and explain it The art and act of teaching in this as if world necessitates teachers to be public intellectuals intellectual symbols who represent something more than just subject knowledge expertise but serve as conduits between the discourses of our world Established genres and discourses are exclusionary The vast migration of people and ideas is producing a new set of presuppositions The manner in which we decode other discourses and fuse them into meanings both personal and shared is the root of both teaching and learning giving us a window into the way that each form of thought is connected both historically and experientially Look around you your school is becoming the United Nations but it's not so united Don't aim for truth aim for understanding Today's students construct and deconstruct in a multitude of ways on an as needed just in time basis Since ideas of difference are often nudged but unacknowledged we are in danger of becoming pedagogical dinosaurs not heeding change until it is too late Teaching and learning are construction zones so get out your hard hat These constructions are possibilities that need to be discussed and negotiated allowing us to sidestep the traps of grand narratives and a hierarchy of disciplinarity and research methodology Our possibilities need to be forged on an anvil of diversity These are the spaces the interstices where our voices become innovative and our silence offers a safe harbor Spaces to listen collaborate and craft cautionary tales about our lives and the possibilities for a shared future

The Columbia Anthology of Modern Japanese Literature: From 1945 to the present J. Thomas Rimer, Van C. Gessel, 2005 This comprehensive anthology collects works of fiction poetry drama and essay writing from a pivotal time in Japanese history In addition to their literary achievements the texts reflect the political social and intellectual changes that occurred in Japanese society during this period including exposure to Western ideas and literature the rise of nationalism and the complex interaction of traditional and modern forces The volume offers outstanding often new translations of classic texts by such celebrated writers as Nagai Kafu Shimazaki Toson Natsume Soseki Kawabata Yasunari and Yosano Akiko The editors have also unearthed works from lesser known women writers many of which have never been available in English Organized chronologically and by genre within each period the volume reveals the major influences in the development of modern Japanese literature the Japanese classics themselves the example of Chinese poetry and the encounter with Western literature and culture Modern Japanese writers reread the classics of Japanese literature infused them with contemporary language and refashioned them with an increased emphasis on psychological elements They also reinterpreted older aesthetic concepts in light of twentieth century mentalities While modern ideas captured the imagination of some Japanese writers the example of classical Chinese poetry remained important for others Meiji writers continued to compose poetry in classical Chinese and adhere to a Confucian system of thought Another factor in shaping modern Japanese literature was the example of foreign works which offered new literary inspiration and opportunities for Japanese readers and writers Publisher s description Ambient Literature and the Aesthetics of Calm Paul Roquet,2007
