Murder In Brentwood:

Murder in Brentwood Mark Fuhrman, 1997-12 Recounts the first twenty four hours of the investigation into the murder of Nicole Simpson describes evidence that was not used in the trial and shares the author's impressions of the case and why it failed Iago in Brentwood Jasper Garrison, 2000 The Golf Club Murder Oscar Jerome Friend, 1929 Murder In Spokane Mark Fuhrman, 2002-04-30 True crime at its very best Building on his two previous Murder in bestsellers Mark Fuhrman turns his formidable detective skills to the apprehension and arrest of Robert L Yates Jr a serial killer responsible for the deaths of at least 23 women Written in the same fast paced style as Murder in Brentwood and Murder in Greenwich this is a shocking account of Fuhrman's investigation of the prostitutes deaths as he worked alongside the Spokane Task Force The serial killer preyed on prostitutes with drug problems He intentionally selected street people who would not be missed right away often women who were new to town The police seemingly put these murders on the back burner because the victims did not stir up public sentiment Only after the serial killer began to play with the police planting bodies for attention and escalating the murders did intense effort go into the case Though the understaffed police force did catch the killer Fuhrman shows that their reliance on computers and on DNA test results from everyone they interviewed was slower than doing old fashioned gumshoe detective work With the clues they had Fuhrman writes the police could have made the arrest two years earlier saving the lives of at least nine women California. The New Republic Herbert David Croly, 1996 Mark Fuhrman's Murder in Brentwood Melva J. Kearney, 1998 Apologia is a rhetorical genre of self defense As such apologetic discourse involves a response to an attack upon an individual's character or worth as a human being Los Angeles Police Detective Mark Fuhrman encountered such an attack during the O J Simpson murder trial The purpose of this analysis is to determine whether the rhetorical strategies indicative of apologia are used to perform masculine facework in Mark Fuhrman's Murder In Brentwood By means of critical analysis apologia can be established as a masculine face saving strategy The analysis takes place in two stages First the connection between facework and apologia is established The four strategies of Hodgins Liebeskind and Schwartz 1996 Sandra Petronio's examples of defensive strategies and three strategies in William L Benoit's 1995 typology of image restoration strategies provide the first two units of analyses Second questions gleaned from the research of Noreen Kruse 1977 determined the topics to which Fuhrman devotes the most time in his discourse and the motivational drives that shape that discourse By integrating the findings of both analyses the masculine face Fuhrman endeavors to save emerges

Killing for Life Carol Mason, 2018-08-06 How can those who seek to protect the right to life defend assassination in the name of saving lives Carol Mason investigates this seeming paradox by examining pro life literature both archival material and writings from the front lines of the conflict Her analysis reveals the apocalyptic thread that is the ideological link between established anti abortion organizations and the more shadowy pro life terrorists who subject clinic workers to anthrax scares bombs and bullets The portrayal of abortion as America s Armageddon began in the 1960s In the 1970s Mason says Christian politics and the post Vietnam paramilitary culture popularized the idea that legal abortion is a harbinger of apocalypse By the 1990s Mason asserts even the movement s mainstream had taken up the call narrating abortion as an apocalyptic battle between so called Christian and anti Christian forces Pro life violence of the 1990s signaled a move away from protest and toward retribution she writes Pro life retribution is seen as a way to restore the order of God In this light the phenomenon of killing for life is revealed not as an oxymoron but as a logical consistency and a political manifestation of religious retribution Mason s scrutiny of primary sources direct mail internal memoranda personal letters underground manuals and pro life films magazines and novels draws attention to elements of pro life millennialism Killing for Life is a powerful indictment of pro life ideology as a coherent mass produced narrative that does not merely condone violence but anticipates it as part of God s plan In Pursuit of Justice Los Angeles Times (Firm),1995 From the Times coverage of the trial of the century More than 100 color photos graphics maps The O.J.
