The Mulberry Empire Philip Hensher,2003-10-14 With Tolstoyan sweep and Dickensian vitality this epically involving historical novel relates England's tragic adventure in Afghanistan which began with the triumphant arrival of the Army of the Indus in 1839 and ended three years later in rout and massacre At the center of The Mulberry Empire is Alexander Burnes a Scots explorer who travels to the unfathomably remote kingdom of Afghanistan and first befriends and then reluctantly betrays its wise and impeccably courteous Amir But he is only one character in a cast that includes ladies and generals princes and deserters all brilliantly and sympathetically realized At once stirring and harrowing exotic and cautionary and as vividly colored as a Persian miniature the result is a tour de force of re creation and invention Mezzaterra Ahdaf Soueif,2012-09-10

Globalisation is happening It is driven by economics ideology and communications But does this have to entail the annexation of chunks of the world by the Great Power of any given moment Surely that is the path to constant conflict to grief and misery There is another way to inhabit and broaden the common ground This is the ground where everybody is welcome the ground we need to defend and to expand It is in Mezzaterra that every responsible person on this planet now needs to pitch their tent This is the ground from which this book is calling Ahdaf Soueif is one of the finest commentators of our time Her clear eyed reporting is syndicated throughout the world and these essays written between 1981 and the present are collected here for the first time They are the direct result of Soueif's own circumstances of being as she puts it like hundreds of thousands of others people with an Arab or a Muslim background doing daily double takes when faced with their reflection in a western mirror From visiting Palestine and entering the Noble Sanctuary for the first time to interpretations of women who choose to wear the veil and to post September 11th commentary these selected essays are always perceptive fearless intelligent and necessary Hear Us Out Richard Canning,2004-01-13

The author of the acclaimed Gay Fiction Speaks brings us new interviews with twelve prominent gay writers who have emerged in the last decade Hear Us Out demonstrates how in recent decades the canon of gay fiction has developed diversified and expanded its audience into the mainstream Readers will recognize names like Michael Cunningham whose Pulitzer Prize winning novel The Hours inspired the hit movie and others like Christopher Bram Bernard Cooper Stephen McCauley and Matthew Stadler These accounts explore the vicissitudes of writing on gay male themes in fiction over the last thirty years prejudices of the literary marketplace social and political questions the impact of AIDS commonalities between gay male and lesbian fiction and even some delectable bits of gossip The Northern Clemency Philip Hensher,2010-02-09

In 1974 the Sellers family is transplanted from London to Sheffield in northern England On the day they move in the Glover household across the street is in upheaval convinced that his wife is having an affair Malcolm Glover has suddenly disappeared The reverberations of this rupture will echo through the years to come as the connection between the families deepens But it will be the particular crises of ten year old Tim Glover set off by two seemingly inconsequential but ultimately indelible acts of cruelty that will erupt full blown two decades later in a shocking conclusion Expansive and deeply felt The Northern Clemency shows Philip Hensher to be one of our most masterly chroniclers of modern life and a storyteller of virtuosic gifts    The Trow (formerly Wilson's) Copartnership and Corporation Directory of New York City ,1908    The Lion's Share Bernard Porter,2014-06-11 As well as presenting a lively narrative of events Bernard Porter explores a number of broad analytical themes challenging more conventional and popular interpretations He sees imperialism as a symptom not of Britain's strength in the world but of her decline and he argues that the empire itself both aggravated and obscured deep seated malaise in the British economy    The Mulberry Empire Philip Hensher,2002    The Farmers' Register, A Monthly Publication, Devoted to the Improvement of the Practice and Support of the Interests of Agriculture Edmund Ruffin,1838    The Farmers' Register ,1838    The American Fertilizer Handbook ,1915    The American Fertilizer Hand Book ,1917    Story of China and Japan James Hyde Clark,1894    Economics of the Silk Industry Ratan Chand Rawley,1919    The Industrial Directory of New Jersey ,1909    China Journal of Science and Arts ,1928    The China Journal ,1928    Bulletin of the Imperial Institute Imperial Institute (Great Britain),1924    Chambers's encyclopædia Chambers W. and R., ltd,1901    The World's Merchant Fleets, 1939 Roger W. Jordan,1999 At the outbreak of war in 1939 over 600 ships traded across the world's oceans and they were to become the pawns in the global conflict which was to permeate the operations of every shipping line on every continent This book gives the details of all those ships which were extant in 1939 and describes the fate of all those which were lost between 1939 and 1945    Chambers's Encyclopaedia ,1892
