Multicultural Counseling In Schools A Practical Handbook:

Multicultural Counseling in Schools Paul Pedersen, John C. Carey, 1994 This is the first text to focus on the practice of multicultural counseling in K-12 school settings. The text addresses the needs of both practicing school helpers and helpers in training. Noted authorities in multicultural counseling contribute chapters which cover important topics such as dropout prevention, teacher consultation, individual and group counseling, family consultation, career development, and assessment. MARKETS Graduate level courses in multicultural counseling as well as professionals such as school counselors, school psychologists, and school social workers. Multicultural Counseling in Schools Paul Pedersen, John C. Carey, 2003 This text describes the practice of multicultural counseling in K-12 school settings focusing on a family-centered model of multicultural school counseling. The text not only provides information that is racial/ethnic specific but also provides general principles of multicultural practice that are illustrated by reference to one or more racial/ethnic groups. Learning features include chapter objectives and discussion questions. This second edition contains new chapters on educational reform, working with immigrant groups, and working with disabled students across cultures. Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc. Portland, OR.

Strategies for Building Multicultural Competence in Mental Health and Educational Settings Madonna G. Constantine, Derald Wing Sue, 2005-03-18 A must-read book for all mental health professionals wanting to keep up with today's most important clients. Practical, concrete hands-on details from firsthand experts on ethnic populations. Richard Suinn, PhD, Colorado State University. Past president, 1999 American Psychological Association. The rich mosaic of racial and ethnic diversity defines our society now more than ever. For students and professional psychologists, this translates into a critical need to address a range of cultural diversity issues as well as potential biases. Recently, the American Psychological Association (APA) recognized the importance of cultural competence for psychologists through its adoption of its Multicultural Guidelines. Applying those guidelines to real-world practice is both complex and challenging. Only one text brings it all into sharp focus. Strategies for Building Multicultural Competence in Mental Health and Educational Settings Edited and written by renowned multicultural experts, this informative guide is full of concrete strategies and case examples all geared toward achieving the goal of culturally competent practice. Chapter by chapter, it uses a variety of practice modalities in various settings to help all mental health professionals increase their familiarity and compliance with the APA Multicultural Guidelines. Beginning with a useful summary of the APA guidelines, Strategies for Building Multicultural Competence in Mental Health and Educational Settings covers the guidelines' relevance to individual and group counseling, couples and family counseling,
