Multicultural Politics Racism Ethnicity And Muslims In Britain:

Multicultural Politics Tariq Modood,2005 Examines the modern problem of religious identity and cultural racism Islamic Radicalism and Multicultural Politics Tahir Abbas,2011-03 The emergence of an Islamic political radicalism in Britain has been one of the most dramatic developments in post war society Islamic Radicalism and Multicultural Politics explores the context behind this phenomenon focusing on post war immigration and integration the complex relations that exist between Britain and Islam and the true extent of social and economic inequalities that affect Muslims The Oxford Handbook of British Politics Matthew Flinders,2009-07-16 The Oxford Handbook of British Politics provides the most sophisticated and up to date analysis of British politics to date Essential for all those working in the area Muslim Identity Politics Khadijah Elshayyal,2018-02-28 The surge in divisive and far right politics and growing Islamophobia in Britain pose new challenges for Muslim advocacy organisations British Muslim activism has taken centre stage in the public sphere as a result Yet for over fifty years Muslim advocacy groups have worked to preserve religious identity lobby the state and provide concerted responses to the political establishment This is the first book to chart critically the national and global factors influencing the political mobilisation of British Muslim activists as Muslims Khadijah Elshayyal traces the changes of thought direction and method within Muslim identity politics after 1960 noting key organisations and turning points such as the Rushdie Affair the 9 11 attacks the 7 7 bombings and the current conflict in Syria The book argues that the Rushdie Affair prompted new debate around the subject of freedom of expression which has continued to be a point of contention ever since Providing a history of the interaction between Muslim advocacy groups and the state and the impact of state policy on Muslim communities Muslims Identity Politics shows that that Muslim citizens continue to experience an equality gap and recommends where transformation and progress can be made Based on primary sources and in depth interviews this book is a vital resource for government officials policy makers and researchers interested in multiculturalism Islamophobia and security issues in Britain Integration in Multicultural England Jörg Friedrichs,2025-07-24 Positive relations between Muslims and non Muslims are important for the future in Britain and beyond By studying community relations this book takes an innovative approach that moves beyond mapping British Muslims or British Islam Instead J rg Friedrichs discusses the actual ways Muslims and non Muslims relate or fail to relate where it matters most namely in diverse inner cities Is Britain a multicultural country is it moving towards greater integration or is this a false dichotomy Given their unique everyday experience inner city residents prove to be experts when it comes to community relations To give them a voice and learn from their experience the book takes us on a tour of diverse English inner cities Reassuringly the grassroots perspective of residents is consistent with a vision of integration in multicultural England Residents are concerned not so much about hot button issues like extremism or terrorism Instead their minds are set on practical matters how to coexist peacefully in stressful urban environments and how to find love and raise families when norms diverge Caught between grievance and aspiration inner city residents from any background express disappointment at Muslim and non Muslim parents sending their children to different schools They also discuss whether governance should be community blind or community based and if Britain is ready for a Muslim Prime Minister In all of this Muslim and non Muslim residents acknowledge that we live in a multicultural society For most however it does not follow that we should adopt multiculturalism as an ideology Instead most people crave and support a move towards greater integration British Muslims and the Call to Global Jihad Kylie Baxter,2007 Explores the theoretical foundations of the Islamic understandings of jihad and provides an analysis of the British government s response to home grown Islamism in the wake of the terrorist attacks in London on 7 July 2005

Writing British Muslims Rehana Ahmed,2024-06-04 The Rushdie affair September 11 2001 and 7 7 pushed British Muslims into the forefront of increasingly fraught debate about multiculturalism Stereotyping images have proliferated reducing a heterogeneous minority group to a series of media soundbites This book examines contemporary literary representations of Muslims by British writers of South Asian Muslim descent including Salman Rushdie Hanif Kureishi Monica Ali and Nadeem Aslam to explore the contribution they make to urgent questions about multicultural politics and the place of Muslims within Britain By focusing on class and its intersection with faith race and gender in identity and community formation it challenges the dichotomy of secular freedom versus religious oppression that constrains thinking about British Muslims and offers a more nuanced perspective on multicultural debates and controversies Writing British Muslims will appeal to academics and postgraduate and final year undergraduate students in the fields of postcolonial studies English studies and cultural studies Europe and Its Muslim Minorities Amikam Nachmani,2009 The presence of Muslim communities in Europe is a politically charged issue Sporadic attacks by radical Muslims have further highlighted the problem of a deep cultural divide between the Muslims and their host countries This book presents a picture of the causes and effects of Muslim immigration to the West The American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences ,2005 The Muslim World Book Review ,2006 Britain's First Muslims Fred Halliday,2010-01-30 First published in hardback in 1992 as Arabs in exile T p verso

Law and Religion in Multicultural Societies Rubya Mehdi,2008 This collection of essays concerns the co existence of religious and secular laws in multicultural societies By considering a wide range of societies the book allows more comparisons and makes a much wider contribution than most others on the same topic The majority of the papers in this book are either based on personal experience or on empirical social scientific research The sociological approach means that both religious doctrine and legal doctrine are seen and discussed as social phenomena Half of the studies in the book are focused on countries and societies in North America and Europe including Britain Canada the European Union Belgium and Denmark They consider other countries in their relationships to North America and Europe in consequence of immigration and they contain many comparative reflections thus opening up further possibilities of understanding society in the west Law and Religion in Multicultural Societies is in many ways a global book on a global issu

The Australian Journal of Asian Law, 2006 The Construction of Minority Identities in France and Britain Gino G. Raymond, Tariq Modood, 2007-11-09 Britain and France have divergent attitudes to the issue of minority identities. Whilst the British emphasise multiculturalism allowing that it is possible to combine race or faith with a British identity the French view such a combination of religion and nationality as unacceptable. However recent events have challenged these traditional approaches to minorities. The London bombings of July 2005 and the fact that the perpetrators were British threw into question the assumption that the elevation of difference could lead to community cohesion whilst riots in Birmingham in October 2005 between black and Asian communities further highlighted tensions. Similarly French certainties about their proactive attitude to the integration of minorities into a national community unified by common values were profoundly shaken by rioting in urban areas.
