Multinational Automobile Industry:

The Global Automotive Industry Paul Nieuwenhuis, Peter Wells, 2015-08-10 The automotive industry is still one of the world's largest manufacturing sectors but it suffers from being very technology focused as well as being relatively short term focused. There is little emphasis within the industry and its consultancy and analyst supply network on the broader social and economic impacts of automobility and of the sector that provides it. The Global Automotive Industry addresses this need and is a first port of call for any academic official or consultant wanting an overview of the state of the industry. An international team of specialist researchers both from academia and business review and analyse the key issues that make vehicle manufacturing still the world's premier manufacturing sector closely tied in with the fortunes of both established and newly emerging economies. In doing so it covers issues related to manufacturing both established practices as well as new developments issues relating to distribution marketing and retail vehicle technologies and regulatory trends and crucially labour practices and the people who build cars. In all this it explains both how the current situation arose and also likely future trajectories both in terms of social and regulatory trends as the technological marketing and labour practice responses to those leading in many cases to the development of new business models. Key features: Provides a global overview of the automotive industry covering its current state and considering future challenges. Contains contributions from international specialists in the automotive sector. Presents current research and sets this in an historical and broader industry context. Covers threats to the industry including globalization economic and environmental sustainability. The Global Automotive Industry is a must have reference for researchers and practitioners in the automotive industry and is an excellent source of information for business schools governments and graduate and undergraduate students in automotive engineering.

The multinational automobile industry. (1. publ. in the U.S.A. George Maxcy, 1981 The Multinational Automobile Industry George Maxcy, 1981-01-01 Ford and the Global Strategies of Multinationals Maria Isabel Studer Noguez, 2003-08-27 Today the Multinational Enterprise MNE is seen as a leading agent in the process of globalization. As they adopt global strategies MNEs are seen to be creating stronger deeper and more lasting links amongst countries thus shifting the balance of power inexorably in their favour to the detriment of the state. This book interrogates this idea by undertaking a historical analysis of the global strategies of Ford.

The Competitive Status of the U.S. Auto Industry National Research Council, Commission on Engineering and Technical Systems, Committee on Technology and International Economic and Trade Issues of the Office of the Foreign Secretary, Automobile Panel, 1982-02-01 Restructuring the Global Automobile Industry Christopher M. Law, 2017-07-06 Originally published in 1991 this book examines the spatial implications of the changes to the automobile industry at world national and local levels. The volume brings together the work of North American European and Japanese geographers economists and sociologists and includes perspectives from the components industry the shop floor experience and local economic policy making.

Automotive Firms in Asia Rajah Rasiah, Yuri Sadoi, Rogier Busser, 2013-10-18 East Asia has led rapid economic growth in the last few decades with India joining them over the last five years Automotive parts manufacturers have been an important component of domestic production in all these economies Experts with several years of multi disciplinary research experience on the field examine the actual and potential technological and localization implications of MNC operations in East Asia and India The rich collection of country experiences are both original and incisive This volume includes Case studies from China Japan India Thailand and Malaysia A study of the role of multinationals in Asian technology building An examination of the growing Chinese automobile sector Featuring leading academics from across Asia this title is essential reading for those studying industrial growth in the continent s major economies      Transnational Corporations in the International Auto Industry Centre on Transnational Corporations (United Nations), 1983      The Global Korean Motor Industry Russell D. Lansbury, Chung-Sok Suh, Seung-Ho Kwon, 2007-01-24 This book examines the experiences of the globalizing Korean automobile industry with particular focus on the Hyundai Motor Company HMC one of the most prominent of the new Korean multinational corporations It provides an overview of the changing nature of the global automobile industry before considering in depth the globalization processes that the Korean automobile industry has undertaken Tracing the development of HMC as it recovered from the failure of its first venture overseas in Canada and tried again in India the authors explore the similarities and differences between the practices which HMC implemented in India and Korea They highlight the importance of production systems and employment relations as part of HMC s growth and argue that if Korean companies such as HMC are to compete successfully as global automobile producers they will need to increase the proportion of overseas production establish global supply chains and improve co ordination between head office and subsidiaries Based upon extensive fieldwork in India and Korea this book is a detailed account of the globalization of the Korean automobile industry and Hyundai Motor Company Its findings will be of importance to all those who seek to understand the challenges faced by firms that attempt to become global players      Catch up processes in the global automobile industry Daniel Wäldchen, 2012-11-22 Master s Thesis from the year 2012 in the subject Business economics Miscellaneous grade 1 2 Berlin School of Economics and Law language English abstract This thesis seeks to contribute to the discussion on latecomer firms by gaining insights into the catch up processes of five automobile companies in the passenger car segment namely BYD PRC Chery PRC Geely PRC Tata Motors India and Mahindra Mahindra India Based on learning theories and the core processes of automobile manufacturers the thesis develops a catch up framework to systematically compare automobile latecomers Korean automobile manufacturer Hyundai serves as an example for successful catch up and provides a contextual framing for catch up processes in the automobile sector An analysis of empirical data provides evidence for the evaluation of the catch up status of the five challenger firms The author emphasizes the influence of institutional settings in China and India and the role of business groups which both can act as facilitators for the catch up process Finally the thesis clusters the catch up strategies of the five observed companies in order to compare their approach The results indicate that the observed automobile latecomers have not achieved a sophistication level comparable to incumbents in terms of capabilities However opportunities to accelerate the capability building process exist Latecomers can leapfrog through partnering acquisitions or changing the rules of the game in the industry

Merging Traffic John A. C.
