AN INTRODUCTION

Mobilink GSM registered as Pakistan Mobile Communication Limited (PMCL), a subsidiary of Orascom Telecom, started its operations in 1994, and has become the market leader both in terms of growth as well as having the largest customer subscriber base in Pakistan –a base of over 24 million and growing. We pride ourselves on being the first cellular service provider to operate on a 100% digital GSM technology in Pakistan that also provides state-of-the-art communication solutions to its customers.

Mobilink offers exclusively designed tariff plans that cater to the communication needs of a diverse group of people, from individuals to businessmen to corporate and multinationals. To achieve this objective, we offer both postpaid (Indigo) and prepaid (JAZZ) solutions to our customers. Compared to our competitors, both the postpaid (Indigo) and prepaid (JAZZ) brands are the largest brands of their kind in the Pakistan cellular industry.

Mobilink provides the most extensive network coverage footprint across Pakistan through an integrated technology infrastructure in more than 10,000 cities, towns, villages, and countless remote destinations, including International Roaming in 110 countries through 300 partner operators.

The company directly employs over 4,000 people and has the largest distribution network with 200,000 outlets across Pakistan. Mobilink corporate social responsibility program contributes significantly in key areas of health, education, social uplift and cultural development causes in Pakistan and the company is the official cellular service of the Pakistan Cricket Board. Mobilink is the only corporate in Pakistan to issue a 'high-yield' bond worth US$ 250million in the International Market and has portrayed a positive image of the country as a secure destination for business activity.

Japan's Foreign Policy in the 1990s R. Drifte,1996-05-07 This book looks at Japan s foreign policy at the regional and global level from a power perspective It argues that Japan is no longer an economic superpower while satisfying itself with the posture of a political pygmy Instead Japan is increasingly translating its economic power into influence over the perceptions intentions options and material circumstances of other people This new power posture has been referred to as civilian power but is no less effective for national interest than military power was in the past The present economic difficulties and the political upheaval have not significantly dented Japan s power CIS Index to Publications of the United States Congress Congressional Information Service,1995 Monthly Catalogue, United States Public Documents ,1995-02

Current World Affairs ,1995 Global Technology Transfer John Chumack,2002 Governments the world over fret continuously about the low level of transfer of technology especially within their own countries The general problem is military to industry although the variations are numerous Problems of presentation offering and support complicate an already byzantine world Yet somewhere within this dilemma lie the seeds of tomorrow s economic uptick Besides the nontrivial problems involved here the reluctance of the people having the technology to share it with someone who can profit from it stands out This book presents the issues and offers a comprehensive bibliography for easy access American Foreign Policy Index ,1995 The Complexity Challenge Robert W. Rycroft,Don E. Kash,1999 This book investigates the fundamental rethinking required by the transition to a production system whose guiding intelligence is self organizing networks Utilizing an exploding literature in the science of complexity and evolutionary economics plus six detailed case studies of complex technologies that have experienced repeated innovation this study identifies distinct innovation patterns and explores what happens when changes in these patterns occur This volume also identifies the conditions that signal the approach of such changes and investigates the appropriate strategy and policy responses used to deal with them
