Human Rights in Colombian Literature and Cultural Production Carlos Gardeazábal Bravo, Kevin G. Guerrieri, 2022-04-28 This volume explores how Colombian novelists artists performers activists musicians and others seek to enact to perform to stage to represent human rights situations that are otherwise enacted discursively that is made public or official in juridical and political realms in which justice often remains an illusory or promised future In order to probe how cultural production embodies the tensions between the abstract universality of human rights and the materiality of violations on individual human bodies and on determined groups the volume asks the following questions How does the transmission of historical traumas of Colombia's past through human rights narratives in various forms inform the debates around the subjects of rights truth and memory remembrance and forgetting and the construction of citizenship through solidarity and collective struggles for justice What are the different roles taken by cultural products in the interstices among rights laws and social justice within different contexts of state violence and states of exception What are alternative perspectives sources and micro histories from Colombia of the creation evolution and practice of human rights How does the human rights discourse interface with notions of environmental justice especially in the face of global climate change regional neo extractivism the implementation of megaprojects and ongoing post accord thefts and re appropriations of land Through a wide range of disciplinary lenses the different chapters explore counter hegemonic concepts of human rights decolonial options struggling against oppression and market logic and alternative discourses of human dignity and emancipation within the pluriverse

Global Issues in Contemporary Hispanic Women's Writing Estrella Cibreiro, Francisca López, 2013 Carolyn Tuttle led a group that interviewed 620 women maquila workers in Nogales Sonora Mexico The responses from this representative sample refute many of the hopeful predictions made by scholars before NAFTA and reveal instead that little has improved for maquila workers The women's stories make it plain that free trade has created more low paying jobs in sweatshops where workers are exploited Families of maquila workers live in one or two room houses with no running water no drainage and no heat The multinational companies who operate the maquilas consistently break Mexican labor laws by requiring women to work more than nine hours a day six days a week without medical benefits while the minimum wage they pay workers is insufficient to feed their families These findings will make a crucial contribution to debates over free trade CAFTA DR and the impact of globalization The book visits continuities and discontinuities among Spanish and Latin American women with regards to the ways in which they approach writing as a political weapon to express ecological concerns to denounce social injustice to re articulate existing paradigms such as local versus global violence versus pacifism immigrant versus citizen and to raise consciousness about racist sexist and other discriminatory practices Such use of writing as an instrument of ethical and political exploration is underlined throughout the different articles in the volume as the authors emphasize pluralism social justice gender equality tolerance and political representation This book offers readers a broad perspective on the multiple ways in which Hispanic women writers are explicitly exploring the social political and economic realities of our era and integrating global perspectives and gender concerns into their writing highlighting the unprecedented level of sociopolitical engagement practiced by 20th and 21st century Hispanic women writers Tale of the Dispossessed/La Multitud Errante Laura Restrepo, 2004-08-01 From the acclaimed author of The Dark Bride comes a new novella published in a bilingual English Spanish edition At the Edge of History José De Piérola, 2007 A Tale of the Dispossessed/La Multitud Errante Laura Restrepo, 2003 From the acclaimed author of The Dark Bride comes a new novella published in a bilingual English Spanish edition Literature, Testimony and Cinema in Contemporary Colombian Culture Rory O'Bryen, 2008 The first in depth examination of a representative range of contemporary Colombian cultural engagements with the conflicts known simply as La Violencia that began in Colombia in the late 1940s The Dispossessed Alfredo
