offers an original and multi faceted review of this topic The family is considered as an organization and the interdependencies and interconnections between its members the generations and genders investigated It offers a unique contribution to the current literature and will appeal to an international audience of researchers policy makers and educators both in academic and professional spheres The Garden ,1886 The Mother's Recompense Edith Wharton,1925

Opening on the French Riviera among a motley community of American expatriates The Mother s Recompense tells the story of Kate Clephane and her reluctant return to New York society after being exiled years before for abandoning her husband and infant daughter Oddly enough Kate has been summoned back by that same daughter Anne now fully grown and intent on marrying Chris Fenno a war hero dilettante and social opportunist Chris s questionable intentions toward her daughter are however the least of Kate s worries since she was once and still is deeply in love with him Kate s moral quandary and the ensuing drama evoke comparison with Oedipus and Hamlet and lead to an ending that startled the mores of the day
