Legends of Irish Witches and Fairies Patrick Kennedy, 1976 In Ireland fairies have disappeared from general view but there was once widespread belief in supernatural beings who could assume the shape of an animal but more often were never seen and who were believed to have great powers mostly good These stories were collected in nineteenth century Ireland and recorded as told to the author The Kirwans of Castlehacket, Co. Galway Ronan Lynch, 2006 This book is a revealing study of the cultural boundaries between the Kirwan family of Castlehacket Co Galway and their tenants The Kirwans the only family among the merchant tribes of Galway to lay claim to Irish ancestry were atypical landlords whose generosity and sense of justice was recorded in song and story This study drawing on local history folklore and literature charts the rise of the family from their 16th century merchant origins through the religious conflicts of the 19th century to their eventual demise after the Civil War and examines how the family wove themselves into the mythology of Knockma the fairy hill at the centre of their north Galway estate through their horseracing exploits The study pays close attention to religious identity drawing on local folklore to show that the bonds between landlord and tenant unravelled as the family grew close to Protestant evangelists in the 19th century Legends of Mount Leinster Patrick Kennedy, 1855 Dan Shanahan - If you don't know me, don't judge me Dan Shanahan, 2010-10-31 Dan Shanahan is a legend in modern hurling a three time All Star and winner of Player of the Year in 2007 His time as an inter county senior hurler coincided with the remarkable revival in Waterford's fortunes which saw them win the Munster Final four times in the last decade In this candid and revealing autobiography Dan speaks about his love of the game which grew out of an idyllic childhood in Lismore and his apprenticeship with the Lismore club He first made his mark as a senior player with Waterford in 1998 under the management of Gerald McCarthy But it was when Justin McCarthy took over as manager in 2002 that the Waterford team really began to shine Dan sharing the glory with such outstanding players as Tony Browne Eoin Kelly John Mullane and Ken McGrath Yet tensions between the players and manager built up in 2007 2008 culminating in a frustrated Dan famously refusing to shake Justin's hand in public McCarthy resigned and was replaced by Davy Fitzgerald who led Waterford to the 2008 All Ireland Final Dan's charisma and extraordinary goal scoring ability earned him a place in Waterford hearts His goal in extra time in the 2010 Munster Final against Cork proved what a vital player he remained and was a fitting climax to a great career He retired from inter county hurling shortly after A tattoo on Dan's arm reads If you don't know me don't judge me It's a testament to Dan's determination to succeed in the face of adversity Hotel & Catering Review, 2009 If You Don't Know Me, Don't Judge Me Dan Shanahan, 2010 Dan Shanahan is a legend in modern hurling A three time All Star and winner of Player of the Year in 2007 he is recognized as one of the best players of the modern era His time as an inter county senior hurler has coincided with the remarkable revival in Waterford's fortunes which has seen them win the Munster Final three times in the last decade and reaching the All Ireland Final in 2008. In this candid and revealing autobiography Dan speaks about his love of the game which grew out of an idyllic childhood in Lismore. After his apprenticeship with the Lismore club and playing for the underage and minor teams he made his debut as a senior player in 1998 under the management of Gerald McCarthy. But it was when Justin McCarthy took over as manager in 2002 that the Waterford team really began to shine. Yet tensions between the players and manager built up in 2007/2008 culminating in a frustrated Dan famously refusing to shake Justin's hand when he was taken off during a game. The player dissatisfaction continued until Justin McCarthy was forced to resign. He was replaced by Davy Fitzgerald who led them to the 2008 All Ireland Final which they lost to Kilkenny. Throughout his career like many star players in hurling and football Dan has had to deal with the tension between the unpaid amateur status of the game and the expectations of a general public media and management who demand high levels of professionalism and dedication from the players. The tattoo on Dan's arm carries the clear message: If you don't know me don't judge me. Our Boys, 1916. Folklore Joseph Jacobs, Alfred Trübner Nutt, Arthur Robinson Wright, William Crooke, 1917.
