Bowker's Guide to Characters in Fiction ,2003      Death of the Daily News Andrew Conte,2022-09-20 The City of McKeesport in southwestern Pennsylvania once had a population of more than fifty thousand people and a newspaper that dated back to the nineteenth century Technology has caused massive disruption to American journalism throwing thousands of reporters out of work closing newsrooms and leaving vast areas with few traditional news sources including McKeesport With the loss of their local paper in 2015 residents now struggle to make sense of what goes on in their community and to separate facts from gossip often driven by social media The changes taking place in this one Pennsylvania community are being repeated across the United States as hundreds of local newspapers close creating news deserts and leaving citizens with little access to reliable local journalism The obituary for local news however does not have to read all bad Even in the bleakest places citizens are discovering what happens in their communities and becoming gatekeepers to information for the people around them In McKeesport citizens are attempting to make sense of the news on their own for better and worse This experiment not only offers clues about what happens after a local newspaper dies but also provides guidance to the way forward      Encyclopedia of Journalists on Film Richard R. Ness,2020-01-15 From All the President's Men to Zodiac some of the most compelling films of the last century have featured depictions of journalists in action While print journalism struggles to survive the emergence of news from social media outlets continues to expand allowing the world to be kept informed on a second bysecond basis Despite attacks on journalists both verbal and physical a free press remains a crucial bastion for civilized society And just as the daily news reflects the current state of affairs films about journalism represent how reporting has evolved over the last few centuries In Encyclopedia of Journalists on Film Richard R Ness provides a comprehensive examination of the fourth estate in cinema from newspaper reporters to today's cyber journalists In this volume Ness provides in depth descriptions and analyses of more than five hundred significant films from the silent era to the present including international productions and made for television movies The entries focus on the image of the press on screen and ethical issues or concerns raised about the practices of the profession Collectively the entries demonstrate that there is a recognizable genre of journalism films with definable plot patterns and iconography Each entry features Major credits including directors writers and producers List of characters and the actors who portray them Running time Plot synopsis Analysis of the role of journalism Many of the entries feature critical reviews as well as cogent selections of dialogue Films discussed here include comedies such as His Girl Friday 1940 nail biting thrillers like Foreign Correspondent 1940 and The Parallax View 1974 social commentaries like Network 1976 and The China Syndrome 1979 dramas like Citizen Kane 1941 and The Post 2017 and of course Academy Award winners All the President's Men 1976 and Spotlight 2015 A definitive study of a film genre Encyclopedia of Journalists on Film will be of interest to film scholars researchers journalists and students of popular culture      Children's Books in Print R R Bowker Publishing,Bowker,1999-12      Free Speech and

Unfree News Sam Lebovic, 2016-03-14 Does America have a free press Many who say yes appeal to First Amendment protections against censorship Sam Lebovic shows that free speech on its own is not sufficient to produce a free press and helps us understand the crises that beset the press amid media consolidation a secretive national security state and the daily newspaper's decline The Politics of Force Regina G. Lawrence, 2023 Published over twenty years ago Regina G. Lawrence's The Politics of Force was the first scholarly book to look at the way in which media coverage of unexpected dramatic events shaped public consciousness about important social and political problems At a time when police brutality was rarely discussed in the news Lawrence examined police use of force in over 500 incidents with an in-depth look at the Rodney King case In doing so she showed that when incidents of police brutality became news they offered one of the few real opportunities for marginalized voices and activists to find a public platform and take on the powerful In the intervening years the empirical and theoretical contributions of The Politics of Force have become more significant not only because police brutality is back in the news but because the media system itself has changed In this updated edition Lawrence contextualizes and extends these contributions while including a closer look at race and racial justice in incidents of police use of force Reflecting on the context in which the book was written a time when race and policing received limited coverage in the news and in the field of political communication Lawrence considers what has changed in media studies since the year 2000 what things haven't changed and why Moreover Lawrence examines coverage of more recent incidents of police violence and the ways in which the voices of citizen activists are treated in the news today In turn she addresses the important question of how defining political problems through such events might or might not produce more lasting policy change Expanding on her landmark publication Lawrence provides an accessible update on news production dynamics and police use of force for a new generation of scholars students and activists IAPA News Inter-American Press Association, 2001 Press Woman, 1980 From Headline Hunter to Superman Richard Ness, 1997-09-25 This filmography a detailed analysis of journalists as they have been portrayed in films consists of 2165 entries for feature films from the silent era through 1996 Americanized Encyclopedia Britannica, Revised and Amended, 1890 The Michigan Journal, 2005 Americanized Encyclopaedia Britannica, 1890 CQ Weekly, 2009 Chicago Tribune Index, 2004 The Advocate, 2002-11-12 The Advocate is a lesbian gay bisexual transgender LGBT monthly newsmagazine Established in 1967 it is the oldest continuing LGBT publication in the United States Index de Périodiques Canadiens, 2000 Time, 1997 Forthcoming Books Rose Army, 1999-08 Spotlight news magazine, 1959 The New York Times Index, 2006
