New World Writing:

World Writing Mary Gallagher, 2008-08-16 Much has been said about the relationship between globalization and culture and the political implications of that relationship. There has been little effort made however to investigate the effect of globalization on poetics or on the ethical moment of literature. World Writing is therefore concerned with studying the intersection of contemporary ethics poetics and globalization through historical and critical readings of writing from various parts of the world. Following an introductory chapter by Mary Gallagher which maps this conceptual terrain the contributors investigate how globalization inflects the necessary relationship between poetics culture ethics and politics. Among the essays are Celia Britton's reading of Édouard Glissant on languages in the globalized world. Mary Gallagher's comparison of Glissant's poetics of cultural diversity with the ethics of Emmanuel Levinas. David Palumbo Liu's exploration of the ethics of postcolonial fiction in J. M. Coetzee's work. Mary Louise Pratt's critique based on recent Latin American writing of the prematurely celebratory nature of globalization and Julia Kristeva's argument for the value of poetics and the ethics of hospitality. What emerges is an intricate discussion of the elusive relationship between the realms of ethics poetics and politics as they intersect in our changing world.

Just One Catch Tracy Daugherty, 2011-08-02 The New York Times bestselling writer Tracy Daugherty illuminates his most vital subject yet in this first biography of the Catch-22 author Joseph Heller. Joseph Heller was a Coney Island kid the son of Russian immigrants who went on to great fame and fortune. His most memorable novel took its inspiration from a mission he flew over France in WWII his plane was filled with so much shrapnel it was a wonder it stayed in the air. Heller wrote seven novels all of which remain in print. Something Happened and Good as Gold to name two are still considered the epitome of satire. His life was filled with women and romantic indiscretions but he was perhaps more famous for his friendships he counted Mel Brooks, Zero Mostel, Carl Reiner, Kurt Vonnegut, Norman Mailer, Mario Puzo, Dustin Hoffman, Woody Allen and many others among his confidantes. In 1981 Heller was diagnosed with Guillain Barré Syndrome a debilitating syndrome that could have cost him his life. Miraculously he recovered. When he passed away in 1999 from natural causes he left behind a body of work that continues to sell hundreds of thousands of copies a year. Just One Catch is the first biography of Yossarian's creator.
