Halverson,Benjamin D. Schaper,2025-01-01 The image of the solitary author devoting days and nights to writing endless bestselling novels remains an insidious and largely unchallenged myth within German culture In this exacting examination of the German publishing industry Agency and Author addresses the financial reality sometimes eclipsed by this idea Focusing on lesser known German language writers and their interactions with the Literaturbetrieb literary scene Agency and Author explores the ways authors assert creative agency in an increasingly eventized literary marketplace Ranging from the impacts of literary awards to media hate campaigns this volume spotlights how profoundly the German literary landscape and our understanding of authorship is transforming Transitions ,2016-08-29 This volume introduces ten emerging voices in German language literature by women Their texts speak to the diverse modalities of transition that characterise society and culture in the twenty first century such as the adaptation to evolving political and social conditions in a newly united Germany globalisation the dissolution of borders and the changing face of Europe dramatic shifts in the meaning of national ethnic sexual gender religious and class identities rapid technological advancement and the revolutionary power of new media which in turn have radically altered the connections between public and private personal and political In their literature the authors presented here reflect on the notion of transition and offer some unique interventions on its meaning in the contemporary era Transnationalism ,1992

Contemporary German-language Literature German Studies Association. Conference, 2015 Investigates the concept of transnationalism and its significance in and for German language literature and culture Proceedings of the ... Annual Convention of the Association of Life Insurance Presidents Association of Life Insurance Presidents (New York, N.Y.), Association of Life Insurance Presidents (New York, N.Y.). Convention, 1931 German Pop Literature Margaret McCarthy, 2015-04-24 Pop literature of the 1990s enjoyed bestselling success as well as an extensive and sometimes bluntly derogatory reception in the press. Since then less censorious scholarship on pop has emerged to challenge its flash in the pan status by situating the genre within a longer history of aesthetic practices. This volume draws on recent work and its attempts to define the genre locate historical antecedents and assess pop's ability to challenge the status quo. Significantly it questions the official story of pop literature by looking beyond Ralf Dieter Brinkmann's works as origin to those of Jürgen Ploog, Jürg Fauser and Hadayatullah Habsch. It also remedies the lack of attention to questions of gender in previous pop lit scholarship and demonstrates how the genre has evolved in the new millennium via expanded thematic concerns and new aesthetic approaches. Essays in the volume examine the writing of well known established pop authors such as Christian Kracht, Andreas Neumeister, Joachim Lottman, Benjamin Lebert, Florian Illies, Feridun Zaimo lu and Sven Regener as well as more recent works by Jana Hensel, Charlotte Roche, Kerstin Grether, Helene Hegemann and songwriter poet Peter Licht.
