News Agencies

Stephen Jukes,2022-02-23 This book explores the role of international news agencies and investigates whether they have been able to adapt to the contemporary media landscape following the disruption wrought by fake news social media and an increasingly polarised public discourse News Agencies addresses the key players in the industry beginning with the big three Reuters The Associated Press and Agence France Presse and then moving on to the newest global player Bloomberg It also explores the role of alternative providers of international news which are seeking to challenge the Western centric perspective of the agencies Drawing on interviews with senior editors Jukes investigates the challenges agencies face in terms of their editorial strategy and business models in today s social media context At a time when there is widespread distrust in the media and agencies are relying increasingly on user generated content as a source for news Jukes critically explores the role of these agencies in the debate over fake news and policies on objectivity impartiality and verification Shedding light on a sector of the news industry that has steadfastly remained out of the public spotlight this book will be of interest to students and academics in the fields of journalism and media studies

International News Agencies

Michael B. Palmer,2020-01-02 International news agencies such as Reuters the Associated Press and Agence France Presse have long been unsung heroes of the media sphere From the mid nineteenth century in Britain the US France and to a lesser extent Germany a small number of agencies have fed their respective countries with international news reports They informed governments businesses media and indirectly the general public They helped define news Drawing on years of archival research and first hand experience of major news agencies this book provides a comprehensive history of the leading news agencies based in the UK France and the USA from the early 1800s to the present day It retraces their relations with one another with competitors and clients and the types of news information and data they collected edited and transmitted via a variety of means from carrier pigeons to artificial intelligence It examines the sometimes colourful biographies of agency newsmen and the rise and fall of news agencies as markets and methods shifted concluding by looking to the future of the organisations
