Next Time There's a Pandemic Vivek Shraya, 2022-03-04 During my first post lockdown massage I willingly engaged in the requisite chit chat about lockdown experiences with my therapist He gushed behind his mask Oh man It was so great Every day I woke up drank coffee read rode my bike My therapist's description did sound pretty great But it was nothing like my own anxiety ridden ordeal Had I done the lockdown wrong In Next Time There's a Pandemic artist Vivek Shraya reflects on how she might have approached 2020 and the COVID 19 pandemic differently and how challenging and changing pervasive expressions attitudes and behaviours might transform our experiences of life in and after the pandemic What might happen if rather than urging one another to stay safe we focused instead on being caring What if instead of striving to make the best of it by doing something we sometimes chose to do nothing With generosity Shraya captures the dissonances of this moment urging us to keep showing up for each other so we are better prepared for the next time and for all times Afterword by J R Carpenter
