Niagara A Novel:

Niagara Richard A. Watson, 1993 Niagara is the story of two daredevils whose lives are changed forever when they challenge the swirling waters of Niagara Falls Jean Francois Gravelet has lived much of his life performing on a wire high over the heads of admiring crowds below But the reputation of a tightrope walker is as precarious as the possibility of a misstep and Gravelet decides to leave France to make his name by risking the ultimate fall a wire walk across the great American landmark Niagara Falls Widowed schoolteachers in Nebraska of 1901 don t have many options So it looks as though Anna Edson Taylor s life will be just what people expect until she answers an advertisement offering a brave man the chance to put his name in history books by riding inside a barrel over Niagara Falls When Taylor is the only person brave enough to ride a wheelbarrow across Gravelet s high wire the exploits of the two are irrevocably entwined They tell their stories in parallel but contradictory narratives speaking eloquently about the natures of men and women how to find balance in life and living together on the edge of the abyss A fast paced story that uncovers profound truths about obsession courage and love Niagara is based on actual historical figures who never met in real life but who as these pages reveal belong together Publisher s description
