

A photograph of two men sitting outdoors. The man on the left is wearing a grey t-shirt and a cap with sunglasses on top, smiling. The man on the right is wearing a dark blue polo shirt, has a beard, and is making a playful face with his eyes squinted and mouth open. They are sitting on a grassy bank next to a river, with industrial buildings and power lines visible in the background under a blue sky with white clouds.

The Diary of a Curious Man Patrick Black,2007-01-30 Edited with a Foreword by Leo de Freyne It is impossible to write a synopsis of this book in terms of plot and themes This is because it is a diary in form and although cohesive it has a myriad of themes It is written over a period of twenty six years and is set in six countries principally Ireland Spain China Poland Estonia and the Sultanate of Oman Other countries also appear England France Germany Russia and more However this is not a travel book although travel is an important aspect of the book's structure It is a story though not a novel in the conventional sense of the word The work is music like in structure with motifs reappearing both overtly and subtly It is a work of philosophy psychology literary and art criticism political and social commentary and much more The book is humorous too and because all diarists take themselves somewhat seriously some of the humour is not Patrick Black's intention
