Outlasting The Landscape:

Outlasting the Landscape Robert Hilles,1989     A Community of One Martin A. Danahay,1993-08-24 Complementing recent feminist studies of female self representation this book examines the dynamics of masculine self representation in nineteenth century British literature Arguing that the category autobiography was a product of nineteenth century individualism the author analyzes the dependence of the nineteenth century masculine subject on autonomy or self naming as the prerequisite for the composition of a life history The masculine autobiographer achieves this autonomy by using a feminized other as a metaphorical mirror for the self The feminized other in these texts represents the social cost of masculine autobiography Authors from Wordsworth to Arnold including Samuel Taylor Coleridge Thomas De Quincey John Ruskin Alfred Tennyson Robert Louis Stevenson John Stuart Mill and Edmund Gosse use female lovers and family members as symbols for the community with which they feel they have lost contact In the theoretical introduction the author argues that these texts actually privilege the autonomous self over the images of community they ostensibly value creating in the process a self enclosed and self referential community of one     The Rudolf L. Landscape's Revenge Caio Yurgel,2018-11-05 Landscape as it appears and is described throughout the works of Bernardo Carvalho and Robert Walser provides an excellent yet virtually unexplored pathway to the authors literary projects The landscape functions here as a synthetic and unifying figure that triggers at first through the analysis of its description per se the main and most evident elements of the authors works However when sustained as a methodological figure beyond the scope of its own description the landscape soon reveals a darker far more fascinating and far less explored side of the authors oeuvres a vengeful seemingly defeatist resentment against the status quo which gives way to the more latent and biting elements of the authors prose such as irony the unheimlich an anti heroic agenda the apocalyptic aesthetics of a disaster prone fictional world as well as an understanding of history and literature through the figures of failure and marginality By drawing from diverse critical traditions from Latin America and Europe this comparative text seeks to unravel in all of its complexity and scope the fictional stage upon which Walser s and Carvalho s characters narrate with their dying breath a world that is slowly undoing itself     Colonialism and Landscape Andrew Sluyter,2002 Sluyter ecology and geography Pennsylvania State U presents a theory to explain relationships between colonialism and landscape applying empirical research to a case study of the Veracruz lowlands along the Gulf Coast of Mexico He also explores broader considerations of environmental conservation development and global policy challenges Of likely interest to geographers and others interested in development and environmental studies Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR     The
