An Outline of Theosophy Charles Webster Leadbeater, 1911 The Outline of Theosophy C. W. Leadbeater, 1998
1915 Contents Introductory What it Is General Principles the Deity the Constitution of Man Reincarnation the Wider Outlook Death Man's Past Cause What Theosophy Does for Us An Outline of Theosophy Charles Webster Leadbeater, 2015-10-11 Charles Webster Leadbeater was an influential member of the Theosophical Society author on occult subjects and co-initiator with J I Wedgwood of the Liberal Catholic Church For many a year men have been discussing arguing enquiring about certain great basic truths about the existence and the nature of God about His relation to man and about the past and future of humanity So radically have they differed upon these points and so bitterly have they assailed and ridiculed one another's beliefs that there has come to be a firmly rooted popular opinion that with regard to all these matters there is no certainty available nothing but vague speculation amid a cloud of unsound deductions drawn from ill established premises And this in spite of the very definite though frequently incredible assertions made on these subjects on behalf of the various religions This popular opinion though not unnatural under the circumstances is entirely untrue There are definite facts available plenty of them Theosophy gives them to us but it offers them not as the religions do as matters of faith but as subjects for study It is not itself a religion but it bears to the religions the same relation as did the ancient philosophies It does not contradict them but explains them Whatever in any of them is unreasonable it rejects as necessarily unworthy of the Deity and derogatory to Him whatever is reasonable in each and all of them it takes up explains and emphasizes and thus combines all into one harmonious whole It holds that truth on all these most important points is attainable that there is a great body of knowledge about them already existing It considers all the various religions as statements of that truth from different points of view since though they differ much as to nomenclature and as to articles of belief they all agree as to the only matters which are of real importance the kind of life which a good man should lead the qualities which he must develop the vices which he must avoid On these practical points the teaching is identical in Hinduism and Buddhism in Zoroastrianism and Muhammadanism in Judaism and Christianity Theosophy may be described to the outside world as an intelligent theory of the universe Yet for those who have studied it it is not theory but fact for it is a definite science capable of being studied and its teachings are verifiable by investigation and experiment for those who are willing to take the trouble to apply themselves for such enquiry it is a statement of the great facts of Nature so far as they are known an outline of the scheme of our corner of the universe Outline of Theosophy. Ct Leadbeater, 2025-05-22 Outline of Theosophy offers a
