Outnumbered! Mary Ann Kuharski, 2006 To outsiders the Kuharski family life sometimes looked like controlled chaos With 13 kids seven by birth six by airport adopted it sometimes felt that way to family members too There were those vacations when the entire family jammed into one motel room There were the excuses Kari told me she wanted her hair cut that short Dominic told me the cement was dry Tony said that Grandma said there wasn't any poison ivy in that area And from a child playing with matches in the basement I didn't know the newspapers would catch fire so quickly and spread to the paint cans There were the challenges of adopting special needs children and the heartbreak of watching some of those children fail to adapt Through it all by the grace of God much prayer and lots of common sense the family became an oasis of stability and love American Book Publishing Record ,2005 The Catholic Periodical and Literature Index ,2006
