Battle for Budapest Krisztián Ungváry, 2011-08-30 This title is presented with a new foreword by Istvan Deak The battle of Budapest in the bleak winter of 1944-45 was one of the longest and bloodiest city sieges of World War II From the appearance of the first Soviet tanks on the outskirts of the capital to the capture of Buda Castle 102 days elapsed In terms of human trauma it comes second only to Stalingrad comparisons to which were even being made by soldiers both German and Soviet fighting at the time This definitive history covers their experiences and those of the 800 000 non combatants around whom the battle raged Acta Geodaetica, Geophysica Et Montanistica ,1967 Acta Technica ,1964 Meteorological and Geostrophysical Abstracts ,1975 International Catalogue of Scientific Literature ,1908 Catalogue of Printed Books British Museum. Library,1893 Hungarian Psychiatry, Society and Politics in the Long Nineteenth Century Emese Lafferton,2021-11-29 This book provides the first comprehensive study of the history of Hungarian psychiatry between 1850 and 1920 placed in both an Austro Hungarian and wider European comparative framework Taking an interdisciplinary approach the book captures the institutional worlds of the different types of psychiatric institutions intertwined with the intellectual history of mental illness and the micro historical study of everyday institutional practice It uncovers the ways in which psychiatrists gradually organised themselves and their profession defined their field and role claimed expertise within the medical sciences lobbied for legal reform and the establishment of psychiatric institutions fought for university positions the establishment of departments and specialised psychiatric teaching Beyond this story of increasing professionalization this study also explores how psychiatry became invested in social critique It shows how psychiatry gradually moved beyond its closely defined disciplinary borders and became a public arena with psychiatrists broadening their focus from individual patients to society at large whether through mass publications or participation in popular social movements Finally the book examines how psychiatry began to influence the concept of mental health during the first decades of the twentieth century against the rich social and cultural context of fin de siècle Budapest and the Austro Hungarian Dual Monarchy British Museum Catalogue of Printed Books ,1898 The Columbia Guide to the Literatures of Eastern Europe Since 1945 Harold B. Segel,2003 The Iron Curtain concealed from western eyes a vital group of national and regional writers Marked by not only geographical proximity but also by the shared experience of communism and its collapse the countries of Eastern Europe Poland Hungary Albania Romania Bulgaria and the former states of Yugoslavia Czechoslovakia and East Germany share literatures that reveal many common themes when examined together Compiled by a leading scholar the guide includes an overview of literary trends in historical context a listing of some 700 authors by country and an A to Z section of articles on the most influential writers Meteorological Abstracts

Department of Printed Books, 1950 A Man for All Connections Andrew Handler, 1996-01-19 This chronicle of Raoul Wallenberg's sojourn to Budapest documents his activities at the Swedish Legation and his rescue efforts on behalf of the Jews of Budapest It is a matter of record that Wallenberg's mission was designed by compassionate and desperate men in Sweden and elsewhere Less well known is the fact that the mission was activated and sustained by various representatives of the Hungarian state apparatus whose cooperation Wallenberg regularly sought and often received The author one of the former hidden children in Hungary believes that without the official and covert aid of such individuals Wallenberg's activities would have been confined to a series of efforts with little or no success Catalogue of the Printed Books in the Library of the British Museum British Library, 1950 Catalogue of Printed Books British Museum, 1897 The Library Catalogs of the Hoover Institution on War, Revolution, and Peace, Stanford University -- Catalog of the Western Language Collections Hoover Institution on War, Revolution, and Peace, 1977
