Our Private Lives:

Our Private Lives Lella Secor Florence, 1944 Healing the Heart of Democracy Parker J. Palmer, 2011-07-15 Hope for American democracy in an era of deep divisions In Healing the Heart of Democracy Parker J. Palmer quickens our instinct to seek the common good and gives us the tools to do it This timely courageous and practical work intensely personal as well as political is not about them those people in Washington D C or in our state capitals on whom we blame our political problems It s about us We the People and what we can do in everyday settings like families neighborhoods classrooms congregations and workplaces to resist divide and conquer politics and restore a government of the people by the people for the people In the same compelling inspiring prose that has made him a bestselling author Palmer explores five habits of the heart that can help us restore democracy s foundations as we nurture them in ourselves and each other An understanding that we are all in this together An appreciation of the value of otherness An ability to hold tension in life giving ways A sense of personal voice and agency A capacity to create community Healing the Heart of Democracy is an eloquent and empowering call for We the People to reclaim our democracy The online journal Democracy Education called it one of the most important books of the early 21st Century And Publishers Weekly in a Starred Review said This beautifully written book deserves a wide audience that will benefit from discussing it Who Owns The Planet , Missing More Than Music Danny Corbitt, 2008-11-04 We re missing out on hearing one another s songs on worship in our daily lives on passion in our praise on the dance of David on fellowship with Christians who disagree on sharing testimony of God s work in our assemblies on agreeing together and more In the Churches of Christ some begin to broaden their experience in praise wishing they could answer the questions of those who feel left behind Missing More than Music understands why we look at the same evidence and disagree There is hope for worship and unity We re missing more than music Let s have all that we ve been missing together We Are Our Children's Future Nancy C. Wilkens, 2004 Nobody talks about common laws anymore We should because the true balance of power in a Democracy is the distinction between common law and statutory law Does that balance still exist No because with each passing day the principles and values upon which the United States was founded are being eroded Federal and judicial manipulation has made the Constitution Bill of Rights nearly irrelevant As Americans we are the most powerful citizens in the world We can choose our own representatives We can choose to acquire as much knowledge as we desire We can choose to worship God in our own way We can choose to turn our ideas into reality We have opportunities tha went undreamt of before 1776 and unrealized in much of the world today We have the power to choose an environment that encourages respect and integrity For 200 years people had the protection of the Constitution Bill of Rights We educated our children we exercised our religion we had the freedom to speak our minds we had property rights we could not be subjected to double jeopardy and the states had authority We had common laws For 200 years we were a people Times have changed We have lost that power States must educate our children in a costly federally mandated manner our property rights are controlled by tax laws and use constraints and when and where we choose to exercise our beliefs is governed We may not voice objections openly or express our opinion unless it is politically correct We are tried on the state and federal levels for the same crime and the states Constitutional power has been suspended by overreaching federal power Our common laws and choices are now bound by federal dictate that is enlarged upon by lawyers courts bureaucrats politicians and special interests with every passing day We have lost our democratic privileges and rights What has this to do with our children Everything If we continue to let the government usurp the power of the people our children will never enjoy the freedoms the Founding Fathers won for us
