The Outcaste Śaraṇakumāra Limbāle, 2003 First published in 1984 The Outcaste is a first person account of the dehumanizing impact of caste oppression in India The Outcaste Sharankumar Limbale, Santosh Bhoomkar, 2013-09-19 An emotionally violent autobiography of a half caste growing up in the Mahar community The Outcaste is a numbing account of the humiliation of a community at the hands of an unthinking privileged class Literature and Psychology: An Interdisciplinary Approach Dr. Prem Shankar Pandey, Literature and Psychology An Interdisciplinary Approach brings together two captivating fields each with its own unique ability to explore and illuminate the human experience The book is based on Call for Book Chapters in which chapters are received from reputed institutions of India along with Iran and Nigeria This book presents the intricate interplay between Literature and Psychology examining how they inform and enrich each other opening up new avenues of understanding and insights The chapters within this volume cover a broad range of topics including the psychological analysis of literary characters examination of literary texts through Psychological theories the influence of literature on psychological well being and essence of Psycholinguistics By integrating these diverse perspectives the reader will get the deeper appreciation of the power of literature to illuminate the human psyche and the relevance of psychological insights in understanding literary works This anthology aims to serve as a valuable resource for scholars students and enthusiasts of both Literature and Psychology where it offers a unique paradigm for connecting the two disciplines together and inspiring them for further research dialogue and cross pollination of ideas Archetypes in Dalit Literature Chandna Singh Nirwan, 2025-03-28 Archetypes in Dalit Literature examines the role of the multitudinous archetypes and myths in understanding the evolution of the psyche and consciousness of the Parayar Dalit community based out of Tamil Nadu India This book also examines the other Dalit communities like Bhangis Chuhras and Madigas through the lens of Archetypal criticism This is a nuanced take on Dalit Studies where Western thought and theory have been applied to the colossal work of a Tamil Dalit writer Bama and others Mulk Raj Anand Omprakash Valmiki Sharankumar Limbale and Perumal Murugan to comprehend the community archetypal characters setting myths rituals and language A detailed analysis of the Jungian archetypes of Rebirth Mother Spirit and Trickster has helped in acquiring an understanding of the so called lower caste their circumstances their life and experiences Among the seminal works on myth criticism are Joseph Campbell's Monomyth and Vladimir Propp's Functions One of Bama's works Vanmam 2008 largely adheres to these structures which makes it a good example of fiction based on reality and thereby also making it at par with the mainstream Indian Writing in English Chandna has also analyzed the significance of community myths stories and folklore using the concept of implicit mythology This book also studies the Dalit language as a special case and unfolds various meanings about the culture community and people in context An important finding is that the language of marginalization is very much a reality Bama's narratives are true representations of the journey of the Parayar Dalit identity formation and the changes it has undergone over time The study of the different aspects of the lives ideologies and culture of the marginalized section of Indian society as represented by these writers in their works has enhanced the understanding of their significant role and contribution to Indian society which may not have over time been acknowledged yet undeniably needs to be appreciated and celebrated Dalit Autobiography: A Critical Study Dipak Giri,2025-03-01 Dalit Autobiography is a distinctive literary form in the sense that it shifts from personal I to communal we This shifting from individual to communal differentiates such autobiographies from mainstream autobiographies where the autobiography mainly centers round personal experiences of the autobiographer concerned On the other hand Dalit Autobiographies deal not only with the individual writer but also with the community he or she belongs to Transformation of individualistic I into communal we makes such autobiographies completely distinctive literary form Such autobiography reflects not only Dalit life and suffering but also their voice of protest and resistance In this sense Dalit autobiographers are activists and writers as well Among Dalit autobiographers irrespective of gender there are innumerable autobiographies written by male and female Dalit writers The present book is my little endeavour to articulate the voice of Dalit autobiographers which is often neglected by the mainstream socio cultural life
