Our Runaway and Homeless Youth Natasha Slesnick, 2004-05-30 The stories of four among hundreds of runaway youths treated in Slesnick's program illustrate points in this volume which offers a summary of the information known about runaway and homeless children and teenagers. In addition to describing the breadth of this problem this book explains different types of runaway and homeless youths and why they leave home by choice or are asked to leave. Slesnick also explains some of the factors common to these children and their families as well as what happens to the youths when they leave home. Direction and support are provided for parents from this clinical psychologist who notes that there are few resources and programs across the nation designed specifically to help families with runaway youths. Told by a parent and three runaways themselves the stories of four people trying to understand the causes and cope with the after effects of running away serve to illustrate research results and issues presented here. This work will be of interest not only to parents of runaways and to mental health professionals but also to students of adolescent psychology family psychology and clinical child psychology.

The Social History of the American Family Marilyn J. Coleman, Lawrence H. CHAPTER ONE CRISIS AND TRAUMAS V PRESENT EVERYWHERE What are the Distinguishing Traits of a Crisis Research has shown that the Chinese word for crisis involves two characters one means danger and the other means opportunity One psychologist summarized the peculiarities in this manner A crisis is a turning point that usually cannot be avoided They are filled with danger because they disrupt life and threaten to overwhelm the people who are affected Furthermore a crisis also present people with the opportunity to change grow and develop better ways of coping Since people in crisis often feel confused and helpless they tend to be more opened to receive outside help including the help that comes from rescue workers from counselors and from God CHAPTER TWO THE MULTIFARIOUS ELEMENTS OF LOSS Increasing Number of Loss Individuals seem to cope with losses better when they are occasional Yet after the age of 50 or 60 they pass into a period of increasing number of losses Still grieving from the previous loss it is ever so hard to make sense of the current one Furthermore if one had never learnt to deal effectively or contend with occasional losses then it is inevitable having several will be catastrophic Equally important is that each type of loss brings its own kind of suffering and reaction CHAPTER

THREE PURPOSE OF CRISIS COUNSELING When a visit is made if the crisis counselor does not have an objective the appointment will be unsuccessful Therefore the underlining purpose of crisis counseling is to support the hurting and not to encourage the avoidance of reality This means the counselor advises individuals in crisis to admit the crisis express grief normally and arrive at a healthy resolution CHAPTER FOUR THE CRISIS OF DEATH AND DYING Although human suffering in multiple dimensions is a factor of life which causes great pain and human anguish it must not be used as a reason for justifying the direct taking of human lifeKGod must always be understood as the Creator and Sustainer of life It was Norman St John Stevas who articulated this view skillfully The value of human life for the Christian in the first century A D as today rested not on its development of superior sentience but on the unique character of the union of a body and soul both destined for eternal life The right to life thus has a philosophical foundation K Respect for the lives of others because of their eternal destiny is the essence of the Christian teaching CHAPTER FIVE COMFORTING THE SUICIDAL AND VICTIMS FAMILY The following are invaluable principles that are crucial to the helpline counseling methods The Suicidal X Activity The person needs to feel that something is being done for him or her right now This solemn promise or guarantee can alleviate his or her anxiety X Involvement of others If the caller realizes that others are now involved and caring for him or her the person will be more apt to feel the care and concern and will more likely respond The Family Counselors friends and family members alike feel guilt extreme displeasure and self blame because the death was not averted However ultimately responsibility for suicide rests with the victim who was unable or unwilling to cope with the pressures of life Ways to support Promise to visit the mortuary and advise family members to do the same If possible accompany the grief stricken relatives knowing that the initial shock and denial could be overwhelming X Resist the phrase It was an accident a terrible accident Some may think this is helpful but its more of an expression of ones own anxiety X Do not pass judgment But he or she was up all night drinking They did not understand what they were doing It is not helpful or necessary to give reasons for the suicide X The date on which the suicide took place Modern Homelessness Mary Ellen Hombs,2011-04-19 This in depth examination reviews fundamental changes of the past decade that have reduced homelessness in the United States and other Western democracies Focusing on the last decade Modern Homelessness A Reference Handbook examines the issue in the United States and in other nations that have adopted new strategies to address homelessness and achieved notable results in preventing and ending it The handbook covers the unprecedented reductions first announced in 2007 and the crucial shifts in strategy and investment and the results that brought them about These fundamental changes are analyzed to identify the factors that proved most effective in altering the national and local dialogue and response relative to this daunting issue In addition to a brief history of homelessness in contemporary times the handbook examines key developments of the past decade in research policy housing models and service delivery that have been shown to decrease homelessness These include active partnership among the governments of the United States Canada England Australia New Zealand and others that moved the discussion in a new direction The story is brought up to date with a consideration of the effects of the 2008 economic crisis Focus ,2004 Encyclopedia of Counseling Frederick T.
