Outback Tales:

KING OF THE OUTBACK BILL. KING, 2016 Outback Adventures Matt Wright, 2018-10-29 Rescuing endangered species piloting choppers and coming nose to snout with some of Australia's deadliest creatures is all in a day's work for Matt Wright. With his mates by his side, Matt ventures into the outback and beyond, managing to get into and remarkably out of some insanely nail-biting situations. This new collection of adventures moves from his home in the Northern Territory to the jungles of Borneo, to the rivers of the Congo. Follow Matt as he tracks down a monster croc in the Congo, relocates fifty saltwater crocodiles over state borders in the space of a few days, rescues elephants and orangutans, and two giant snakes in Borneo, and spends time at home with his pet crocodile Tripod, and gain some behind-the-scenes insights into the making of some of Outback Wrangler's most intense moments. Told with wit, candour, and a hit of adrenaline that makes you feel like you're riding shotgun in Matt's chopper, Outback Adventures is a ripping collection of unforgettable experiences from a remarkable Australian.

Outback Tales Chesney Gardner, 1986 King of the Outback Bill King, 2011 Bill King is a modern-day explorer who has taken everyday Australians along for the ride. Often literally walking in the footsteps of Burke and Wills, Leichhardt, Sturt, and Stuart, thousands of Australians have experienced the adventure of a lifetime in Bill King's capable hands. Bill is the pioneer who put the Australian outback on the map for travellers from all over Australia and the world. In an enterprise founded on hope and grit, his business still operating as AAT Kings, opened up a completely new branch of Australian tourism. Eccentric drivers, mad passengers, and sticky situations abound against the backdrop of the glory of outback Australia. Bill and his passengers sometimes got lost, bogged, stranded, or scared out of their wits, but there was always a fierce determination to bring the show back home. He never lost a passenger or brought one to harm, but by heck, they sometimes tried his monumental patience. Bill King is a living treasure of the Australian Travel Industry, and after thirty years of experiencing everything under the sun, possibly no Australian could match his incredible fund of real-life yarns.

The Jackaroo 'Outback Tales of a £10 Pom' Roger Coote, 2016-08 The ten-pound pom was the description of those people who emigrated to Australia from Britain between 1945 to 1972 Government Assisted Passage Scheme, devised by British and Australian government. Australian government subsidised the fare to only 10 paid by the immigrant. 10 Pom was born. This is the personal memoir of one of these 10-pound Poms. His history, the reason for the journey, and life in the outback is set down in this book in an informative and interesting way. Included in these memoirs are snippets of living conditions and attitudes, songs, and tales of life, personal struggles, interesting information of the layout and job allocation. Risks of the job are many, including the fauna and flora, dangers that must not be overlooked. Tales of the outback and also tales of the locals and the passions and temperaments of the many interesting characters found in this wild but beautiful country. Enjoy this wonderful tale and dream of the life under the southern skies.

Dark Tales from the Outback Lazarus Carpenter, 2023-12-15 Dark Tales from the Outback is a collection of three short stories. Jack is a huge red kangaroo who, guided by an aborigine elder,

Kadaicha lives in the spirit world and because of their relationship Jack becomes a Guardian of the Outback Kaya is a skilled tracker and hunter who roams the vast desolate lands of the Outback Elders warned Kaya there was an evil spirit which had taken the form of a monstrous kangaroo and was driven by an insatiable thirst for blood He must confront evil and bring peace to the Outback The Madness of Outback s Shadow is a dark tale and according to legend Outback s Shadow a kangaroo was cursed for trespassing into sacred grounds and ever since it roamed the desolate plains seeking vengeance on any who dared enter its domain The story was dismissed as a mere folktale by most but for those who lived near the Outback it was a different matter entirely An Outback Marriage Andrew Barton Paterson,1906 Tales for the Bush Mary

Theresa Vidal,2021-11-09 Tales for the Bush by Mary Theresa Vidal is a captivating collection of stories that intricately weaves the rich tapestry of rural Australian life with vivid imagery and heartfelt narratives Vidal s literary style balances realism with the poetic celebrating the landscapes and the resilient spirit of its inhabitants Set against the backdrop of the Australian bush the tales explore themes of community survival and the deep connection between people and nature illuminating the unique cultural heritage of Australia in the early 20th century Each story is crafted with keen observation and a deep understanding of human emotions making them both timeless and resonant Mary Theresa Vidal an Australian author and educator draws from her own experiences growing up in the bush Her intimate knowledge of the land and its people informs her writing allowing her to present authentic and relatable characters that reflect the complexities of rural existence As a creative voice from a time of social changes in Australia her work serves as both documentation and celebration of her cultural background rooted in personal stories and communal values Tales for the Bush is a must read for those interested in Australian literature and the exploration of rural life Vidal s eloquent storytelling not only entertains but also offers profound insights into the human condition This collection is perfect for readers who appreciate the nuances of character driven narratives and a strong sense of place Lonely Planet Australia Lonely Planet, Outback Women Paul Bugeja (Sydney based writer),2013 The Routledge Companion to Australian Literature Jessica

Gildersleeve,2020-12-22 In recent years Australian literature has experienced a revival of interest both domestically and internationally The increasing prominence of work by writers like Christos Tsiolkas heightened through television and film adaptation as well as the award of major international prizes to writers like Richard Flanagan and the development of new high profile prizes like the Stella Prize have all reinvigorated interest in Australian literature both at home and abroad This Companion emerges as a part of that reinvigoration considering anew the history and development of Australian literature and its key themes as well as tracing the transition of the field through those critical debates It considers works of Australian literature on their own terms as well as positioning them in their critical and historical context and their ethical and interactive position in the public and private spheres With an emphasis on literature s responsibilities this book claims Australian literary studies as a field uniquely positioned to expose the ways in which literature engages with produces and is produced by its context provoking a critical re evaluation of the concept of the relationship between national literatures cultures and histories and the social function of literary texts

Investigating Arthur Upfield Carol Hetherington, Kees de Hoog, 2011-10-18 Arthur Upfield created Detective Inspector Napoleon Bonaparte Bony who features in twenty nine novels written from the 1920s to the 1960s mostly set in the Australian Outback He was the first Australian professional writer of crime detection novels Upfield arrived in Australia from England on 4 November 1911 and this collection of twenty two critical essays by academics and scholars has been published to celebrate the centenary of his arrival The essays were all written after Upfield's death in 1964 and provide a wide range of responses to his fiction The contributors from Australia Europe and the United States include journalist Pamela Ruskin who was Upfield's agent for fifteen years anthropologists literary scholars pioneers in the academic study of popular culture such as John G Cawelti and Ray B Browne and novelists Tony Hillerman and Mudrooroo whose own works have been inspired by Upfield's The collection sheds light on the extent and nature of critical responses to Upfield over time demonstrates the type of recognition he has received and highlights the way in which different preoccupations and critical trends have dealt with his work The essays provide the basis for an assessment of Upfield's place not only in the international annals of crime fiction but also in the literary and cultural history of Australia

Outback Women Paul Bugeja, 2013 The word amazon generally conjures up images of wild and powerful warrior women fighting off foes in some primitive matriarchal society where they rule over men who have been subverted to more menial roles Outback Women is a compilation of significant Australian women of simple but important character traits strength fortitude and courage Australia has grown from penal colony to modern nation and important player on the global stage and during this period there have been any number of women who have courageously taken on the multifarious and sometimes death defying challenges the Aussie outback has thrown at them often alongside the man they loved with a gaggle of children in tow These women have faced their trials admirably with rarely a word of complaint and continue to do so to this day they are our Aussie Amazons
